Friday January 2nd 1846

The hands employed at sundry jobs about the house

Saturday 3rd

The hands cutting and hauling wood for to smoke the meat with

Monday 5th

John went for a load of beeves. Jas & Jas Arthur in the woods S. P. at little jobs but not well

Tuesday 6th

The boys at the shoes S. Parker went to mill &c. A gloomy day raining from dinner time

Wednesday 7th

Jas in the shop - the best hauling out manure for compost very heavy rain last nigh & the day mild & gloomy

Thursday 8th

Jas Arthur and Jas. in the woods. John hauling S. Parker & Frank hung the meat &c

Friday 9th

The hands engaged as above except S. Parker who was gathering manure &c Frank at the wood

Saturday 10th

John Jas & Jas. Arthur in the woods cutting & hauling &c

Monday 12th

The hands in the woods cutting hauling leaves &c

Tuesday 13

The hands as above S. Parker went to the Cambers

Wednesday 14th

Jas in the woods. John hauling. S. Parker raking leaves &c. Frank cutting wood & grubbing. Clear & cold

Thursday 15th

John & Jno. Parker hauling leaves. Jas & Jas Arthur in the woods. Frank at the wood yard. Cloudy day

Friday 16th

Jas in the shop. The best transplanting oats. A wet day

Saturday 17th

Jas grubbing. John Parker in the woods raking leaves. John & Jas Arthur transplanting oats. Cloudy with some snow

Monday 19th

The hands transplanting oats. Jas in the shop. Very cold

Tuesday 20th

John & Jas in the barn thrashing rye. Jas in the shop. S. Parker absent

Wednesday 21st

John & Jas Arthur thrashing. Jas in shop. S. Parker drawing meat. A heavy fall of snow last night

Thursday 22nd

John & Jas Arthur thrashing rye. Jas & Jno. Parker in the shop. The weather clear and cold

Friday January 23 - 1846

John & Jas finished thrashing rye. Jas in shop. S. Parker at sundry jobs. Clear & cold

Saturday 24th

The hands variously employed - very cold last night

Monday 26th

All hands, except Frank in the woods. Very mild

Tuesday 27th

John hauled some wood, but was prevented by the rain; the hands cleaned some wheat &c &c. Rain & Snow

Wednesday 28th

All hands cleaning wheat except Jas & Jas Arthur who were in the woods - A mild thawing day

Thursday 29th

Jas. in the shop the other hands hauling leaves. A cloudy misty day

Friday 30th

John & Jno. Parker raking & hauling leaves. Jas & Jas Arthur grubbing - A wet & unpleasant day

Saturday 31st

Jas & Jones Arthur grubbing. Jno. in town with the carriage - S. Parker half a day absent sick

Monday Feby 2

John & Jno. Parker hauling leaves. Jas & Jas Arthur grubbing. The weather mild and cloudy

Tuesday 3rd

Jno & Jno Parker hauling leaves. Jas & Jas Arthur grubbing. Very mild

Wednesday 4th

Jas & Jas Arthur grubbing - S. Parker & Jno. hauled leaves

Thursday 5th

Jas & Jas Arthur grubbing - Jno. Parker & Jno. a posting R-B- to haulp a log &c & hauling leaves. Very mild

Friday 6th

The men cutting rails & hauling &c - Mild and pleasant

Saturday 7th

The hands employed at sundry jobs about the house in consequence of a fall of snow

Monday 9th

Jas & Jas Arthur in the woods mauling rails. Jno hauled. A clear & moderate day

Tuesday 10th

The men making rails and hauling wood rails &c - Clear

Wednesday 11th

All hands engaged as above. A cloudy day

Thursday 12th

John hauled a load of rails & went to mill for flour. Jas & Jas Arthur mauling rails &c