FOURTH OF JULY IN KENT

Tolchester and Betterton Draw Large Crowds—A Thousand People At Worton Races—Rock Hall Races — Camping On Chester—Baseball.

There is no county which affords a more varied program for a holiday than Kent.

Tolchester and Betterton, the two Queen resorts of the Chesapeake Bay, entertained thousands in a safe and sane way. The conduct was nearly perfect and the people seemed to enjoy the programs presented to the full.

Worton Driving Association held a fourth of July matinee on the old Worton track. It is said there were about a thousand persons present. President Albert Story and Secretary James G. Beck gave the public a day of fine sport. West Morrell, aged 17, surprised everyone by his remarkable performance, while the other horses showed promise. Col. Story was starting judge; J. B. Hossinger, Frank C. Miller; A. W. Carmine, J. H. Thompson, timers; J. G. Beck, clerk

The banks of the Chester river were dotted here and there with launching parties quietly celebrating the day, others went under the bridge to fish, still others went for a swim while many enjoyed the quiet of home. In the evening the little folks were firing off rockets and having a good time generally. Many persons visited Toichester and Betterton and elsewhere, but no accidents were reported.

A fine game of baseball between the Millington Champions and Chestertown Reserves was played at Millington Tuesday before a big crowd, the score being in favor of the Champions 10 to 9.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

All roads hereabout, led to Tolchester on the Fourth, but the celebrated Beach was not the Mecca for all our people by a long shot. Many however, did go to the Beach, notwithstanding the fact that "Old Sol," and his pal, "Gen Humidity," got on a rampage, and tried to give us an unusual scorcher. This town, and vicinity, presented a brilliant, and patriotic scene all day. A number of the business houses, were closed all day, Kramer's, Alexander's, Thompson's and Urie emporiums were decorated with brilliant displays of special sale advertisements, which produced good effect to the coffers.

The Rock Hall Racing Association had about 100 on their grounds witnessing fine horse speed. There were many outing parties on land and water, and considerable intervisitation among our residents. Altogether the day was gloriously spent by nearly everybody in this section, about the only thing to ruffle us was the pesky rural carriers and the p. m., who failed to give some of us the daily mail. Well, we are going to give Clayton another job next year and we'll attend to the p. m. later.

There are numerous automobiles passing to and fro in these parts. Some of them are daisies, and one of them is driven by a "Chauffeuse," and she is fully equal to the job.

Mr. Clarence Kendall, of the City police force, and his wife have been spending a season with relatives here. Clarence has been in poor health lately.

Our farmers are busy threshing out their golden grain which is turning out middling fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Rine, of Baltimore, spent part of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Ayres, on Main St.

During the heavy electrical storm of last Tuesday afternoon a shock of wheat on the farm of Mrs. A. M. Willson, near East Neck Island, was struck by lightning and destroyed.

Mrs. Lizzie Eckhardt died on Saturday afternoon after a long illness of cancer at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James H. Thompson of Green Lane.

Mr. John Kendall one of the best known citizens of this section died very suddenly at his home on the Haven on last Saturday morning. He got up early and on his way down stairs was stricken with paralysis of the heart and fell, and died before medical aid could be summoned.

Mrs. Annie Warren, of Still Pond, spent several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Simon Moffett, on the Rock Hall farm.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Kramer and daughter, Miss Freda, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Alexander over Sunday.

Mr. Wm. Taylor, of Baltimore, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. M. Taylor, last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Ayres and children, of Washington, D. C., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Ayres on Main street.

Wedding Notes.—Pippin's Hotel was the scene of a quiet wedding Monday morning the contracting parties being M. M. Dewing and Miss Seward, daughter of George W. Seward, both of Centreville. They arrived here by auto and were married by Dr. L. E. Barrett, in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pippin, Miss Milby and others. After the ceremony they left on train for a trip North. The groom assisted the Chestertown Band on several occasions last year.

Just before the hour for evening service at Galena M. E. Church, Sunday Miss Ella Lingo and Mr. Dudley Clough arrived at the parsonage and were married by Rev. R. H. Lewis.

Miss Nancy B. Miller, of Thomasville, Pa., and Mr. Walter M. Graham, assistant manager of the Round Bay Beach Company, of Baltimore, were quietly married Monday by the father of the groom, Rev. Dr. W. R. Graham, of Salisbury, at St. John's Methodist Protestant Church, Twenty-seventh and St. Paul street. After a trip to New York and Atlantic City Mr. and Mrs. Graham will reside in Baltimore. The groom is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Dodd and Mrs. Marion deK. Smith and well-known in Chestertown.

Mr. John H. White and Miss Maggie Reed, both of Chestertown, were married in Wilmington Monday evening at 1213 Market street by Rev. George L. Wolfe. They returned home Wednesday.

CHURCH NOTES.

Dr. F. T. Little is confined to his home by sickness, and we are sorry to report that he is but little improved at this writing. The twilight service at Christ M. P. Church will be conducted by Rev. G. A. Morris. No service in the morning.

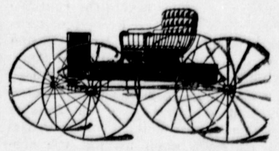

Galena M. E. Sunday school held its reorganization Sunday morning. Mr. George Smith who had been superintendent, having rented a farm near Still Pond, resigned, and Mr. L. R. Vansant, was elected in his place. The church was beautifully decorated with flags and flowers and from the first service in the morning—the Communion service—on down through all of the services of the day the congregations realized as did the Psalmist: "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord." The Epworth League service in the evening, in charge of Captain Walter Hady, was very impressive and helpful as was also the discourse by the pastor, on the theme, "An Appeal to Patriotism," 2 Samuels 10-12.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor—Services tomorrow, July 9th, as follows: 10.30 a. m., preaching by the pastor, subject, "What Pleases The Father." 2.15 p. m., Sabbath school and pastor's bible class; 7 p. m., Epworth League; 7.30 p. m., brief sermon by the pastor. All invited.

Rev. G. A. Morris, of St. James M. P. Church, occupied the pulpit of Christ M. P. Church, Sunday evening in the absence of Dr. Little who was sick. Rev. Mr. Morris preached a forceful and practical discourse and pleased everyone. Miss Osborne, of Washington, rendered a beautiful contralto solo, "Dreams of Paradise."

Preaching services at the Presbyterian churches as follows: Westminister at 10.30 a. m., Grace at 3 p. m., Worton at 7.45 p. m. Sunday school at Worton every Sunday morning at 10 a. m.

Fire in Town.—A fire from a coal oil stove caused quite a stir on Queen street Thursday afternoon. It was in the kitchen of Mrs. Emma Gale adjoining the homes of Miss Mollie Watts and Mr. Edgar P. Beck. Mrs. Gale was sick in bed and had to be removed to Mrs. Stuart where she was kindly cared for. The Volunteer Fire Co. arrived quickly on the scene and with a good force of water soon had the fire under control. Prof. Walter Gale happened to be home and by his coolness helped to save the building. The loss of about $150 is covered by insurance. The residence is owned by Mrs. Morris.

Bank Examiner's O. K.

J. Dukes Downes, Esq., the State Bank Examiner, paid his first official visit to the Peoples Bank last Wednesday, and made a most thorough and exhaustive investigation of the affairs of this Bank.

Mr. Downes is not one of that class of Bank Examiners of whom it has been said "may be deceived by slick bank promoters."

His competency is universally recognized. He knows his business from A to Z. No "swindler" is "sharp" enough to pull the wool over Mr. Downes' eyes in the matter of bank statement or system of book-keeping.

His integrity is unquestioned and his moral character and sense of honor so well known that no "promoter" would be bold enough to approach him seeking undeserved endorsement or unmerited approval.

Well, Mr. Downes has examined The Peoples Bank He came unannounced and unexpected. He counted every penny in the bank's safes. He compared and verified the account of every depositor on the books. He scrutinized every collateral and every security held by the bank. He inquired fully into the financial standing of the makers and endorsers on the negotiable paper held by the bank. In fact he covered every point of a most careful, complete and conscientious examination.

And the result—His Unreserved, Unqualified and Enthusiastic Endorsement and Official O. K.

And further, he complimented the bank officials upon the accurate and perfect system of bookkeeping, and was especially emphatic in his commendation of the manner in keeping the minutes of the Board of Directors, which record he said was unusually full and complete showing in the minutest particular every transaction of the bank.
