LOCAL NOTES

The News would call special attention to the fine concrete street put down in front of the News Building by Superintendent Edward Newton. Mr. Newton and his force have worked faithfully and do good work. We are glad the town could find home talent equal to the occasion.

The old Lloyd Hotel property in Odessa, owned by James H. Massey, has been sold to Charles Armstrong, proprietor of the Brayton House, Rehoboth, for $10,000.

During the sharp thunder storm that prevailed on the afternoon of the Fourth of July, a sharp bolt of lightning struck a large sycamore tree on the farm of Mr. Schee M. Lockwood, near Armstrong's Corner, under which six cows were standing, killing three of them instantly, one of them a registered heifer. A pair of valuable mules, 16 hands high, were just approaching the tree when the lightning struck, but were uninjured.

Fishing in bay and river has been good this week.

The J. W. Russell farm in Piney Neck, tenanted by Commissioner Charles D. Wood, has been rented to Mr. Cole, of near Melitota, for next year.

W. H. Waddell, of Fairlee, expects to remove to Chestertown this fall, having contracted to buy out the business of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Kirby, on High street. Mr. Kirby will go to the country, where he will give his atrention to poultry, &c. Mr. Herman Kernan will tenant the Waddell farm.

The wife of Alfred Hynson, colored, died last week on Scott's Point. She was one of the early day colored women and faithful to her every duty. Her husband, Richard Jones, was a well-known carter here.

The lot purchased by Mr. M. A. Toulson, on High street, will be the site for two stores and dwellings combined. Mr. J. Webster McIntyre has purchased 20 feet of land, on which he will erect a store and dwelling.

The will of Judge Sharp bequeaths most of his property to the Society of Friends.

The picnic held by Christ Meth. Prot Sunday School Wednesday was enjoyed by 348 persons. Love Point was reached at 10 o'clock, and on return, Chestertown at 9 P. M., giving a fine water trip, etc, Capt. Wm. Taylor, Mate Woodall and others looked after the comfort of all, while Col. Phil. Legg, at Love Point, allowed special privileges. Love Point has been greatly improved and has a great future. It was a dry place as no rain had fallen there for seven weeks.

The Robinson farm in Quaker Neck known as "Riverside" has been rented to Mr. Thos. Davis, of Chestnut Ridge.

A Beautiful New Home.—Mr. Hopkins Burgess, who recently sold his home at Gratitude, has built an elegant new home right on the bay on his Hodges Bar farm, near Swan Point. The dwelling is an up to date one in detail and his outbuildings are new and complete. He and his estimable family moved in the early part of the week. Mr. Thos. G. Clothier tenants this beautiful and desirable bay shore farm, and occupies the colonial farm mansion some little distance from the new buildings. Mr. and Mrs. Burgess are to be congratulated upon their beautiful new home. Mr. A. M. Kendall, of Fairlee, was the contractor.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

The heat wave was rounded up and brought head to the wind on Wednesday much to the relief of suffering humanity. Had it continued a few days longer our laboring population would have been knocked completely out. Not for many years have toilers suffered so intensely with hot weather. Our grain runners can't get sufficient help to run their vessels because of the debilitated condition of the men. And to add further to their discomfort they are compelled to lay in the city harbor much longer than they ought because of the slow progress of discharging their cargoes. Church and lodge attendance, too, has been cut very short, even the famous Monday night service at the M. E. Church was cut out this week. Billy, if you don't look out the "old account" will get out of square.

We are sorry, many of us, because of the death of Judge George M. Sharp. In the experience of quite a number of our people, Judge Sharp was a first rate friend and well beloved. Only a short time ago we had the pleasure of a reminescent talk of the days of '70's with the Judge. Little did either think the "boatman" would come so soon.

Mr. O. P. Leary has purchased the home of Mr. John Michelowski, on Allen's Lane. Michelowski vacated on Wednesday going to R. H. wharf where he will reside in the future.

A night-blooming serus bursted forth in all its glory on Thursday night last week and was the attraction of many callers, and, to say the owner, Mrs. A. Alexander, was a happy little woman is not half expressing her delight. The plant was certainly a thing of beauty. It was its third blooming and the best ever.

Constable W. A. Bramble has about the finest tomato tillage in this section.

Mr. E. H. Apsley, of Philadelphia, has been the guest of his father, Mr. J. E. Apsley, the past week.

Mr. Joseph Downey is having a well sunk at the northwest corner of his store and will equipt it with an up-to-date pumping gear if a good stream of water is struck.

Having about completed the new storeroom, Mr. G. H. Davis is moving stock and fixtures therein.

Mr. Alexander had a close call on Tuesday morning while standing in front of a window in his room he was seized with an attack of vertigo and fell to the floor,cutting the back of his head quite severely. Mrs. Alexander rendered cooling remedies and he was soon around again.

By an examination of the advertisement it will be seen that this College is preparing young men for their life's work in Agriculture, Horticulture, Chemistry, Biology, Mechanical Engineering Civil Engineering, Electrical Engineering, and also offers a general cultural course.

There is also a two years course in Agriculture and Horticulture which has been of great advantage te those not in a position to take a four years course.

The annual catalogue shows that the College had, during the past year, 339 students registered; The young men who have graduated from the College during the past few years, almost without exception are now enjoying lucrative positions in their chosen line of work.
