Monday 4th May 1846

All hands engaged in repairing fences & Clear & warm
J. Davidson

Tuesday 5th

A heavy dew last night. At the fence until dinner when all began to plant corn. Some rain in the afternoon
J Davidson

Wednesday 6th

A good deal of rain last night. All hands making fence until dinner after which they began to plant corn & finished at night. Some rain in the morning
J Davidson

Thursday 7th

All hand repairing fence hauling rails &
J Davidson

Friday 8th

A wet gloomy day. John & J. Parker hauling old rails Jas. & Frank stopping the big field fence
J. D. Z

Saturday 9th

Heavy rain last night & this morning the hands variously employed

Monday 11th

The hands hauling old rails & repairing fence along the road
J. D. Z

Tuesday 12th

All hands in the garden. J Parker absent
The weather clear & windy since Sunday John hoed 60 of corn

Wednesday 13th

A clear drying day. The hands in the garden John brought home a load of lime 60 bushels

Thursday 14th

John Parker doing Sunday jobs, the rest at Rogers planting corn

Friday 15th

Clear & warm
All hands as above, until dinner when it began to rain & continued all day

Saturday 16th

A wet and unpleasant day. Very little of consequence done

Monday 18th

A clear day. Jno. went to Westminster for the carriage. J Parker and the boys in the ~~garden~~ making compost. J Davidson

Tuesday 19th

Last night & to day clear. Jno. unwell. John Parker & the boys at the compost &c. J Davidson Shore 22 sheep

Wednesday 20

Jno Parker dismissed this morning. Jno ploughed Jas & Frank at the fence. J Davidson assisting. Clear

Thursday 21st

John ploughing. Frank harrowing potatoes & Jas & Jno. Davidson making fence &c. Clear & warm
J Davidson

Friday 22

John ploughing. John Davidson & Jas replanting corn Frank harrowing & laying out for lime Sunday

Saturday 23rd May 1846

Last night Cloudy. John ploughing until dinner. Frank & Jas. hauling lime. Clear day after 10 o'clock

Monday 25th

Clear day. Frank & Jas & Jno. Davidson spreading lime in the upper part of the burying

Tuesday 26

Frank Jas & Jno Davidson in the garden &c Jno ploughing

Wednesday 27

Frank harrowing. Jas & Jno Davidson at Sunday jobs about the house. Jno ploughed

Thursday 28th

Frank & Jas assisting Br Bonnie to replant corn John continued at the plough

Friday 29th

Jas & Frank began to cultivate the corn
A cloudy day. Jno at the plough

Saturday 30th

Jno ploughed & went to Scarr in the afternoon Frank & Jas. cultivating corn. Cloudy

Monday 1st

John went for lime & with R. B. Swagger hoed 85 The boys at sunday jobs about the house. J Davidson

Tuesday 2nd

John & Jas unloaded lime, cultivated potatoes Frank at Sunday jobs & the corn J Davidson

Wednesday 3rd

The boys grubbing in the vineyard John & Jas hoed 90 bushels of lime. J Davidson

Thursday 4

John ploughing. The boys digging down gutters & cultivating corn. J Davidson
The two last days clear & warm

Friday 5th

John ploughed, Jamet, Frank, Jno Davidson & Chas Rafley at the corn. Clear and pleasant

Saturday 6th

John at the plough. John Davidson and Jas. spread lime. Frank went to the sheds with the wool &c
It began to rain yesterday about 4 & continued during the night

Monday 8th

Commenced raining last night & continued until dinner. The hands variously employed