Messrs. A. H. Covey, W. C. Townsend and T. R. Starr have been appointed trustees of the new school at Pomona.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

At historic Wesleyan Chapel, Sunday last, was an eventful day. Deep sorrow, and great joy, marking the day. The sorrow was caused by the untimely death of young Walter Kendall, over whose remains funeral services were held. Attended by a large gathering. Rev. Mr. Dupuy, assisted by Rev. J. E. Maloy officiating. The joy was the outcome of Rev. Mr. Maloy's presence, and preaching, not many of the congregation were living, or remembered, when Mr. Maloy was Pastor of this church, nevertheless the few that did remember, and all others present enjoyed the forceful eloquence of the Veteran Pastor. Those who were members of the Church 40 odd years ago, when Mr. Maloy was stationed here, recalled many of the happy scenes of those days very vividly.

This community sorrows with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Kendall in their sad bereavement.

Young Maxwell Ryan, who was injured by the lightning that killed Walter Kendall, is at this writing, rapidly recovering under the skill of Dr. Selby.

This section still shows the effects of the terrific storm of the 21st in uprooted and torn trees, flattened fields of corn, but are truely thankful that we escaped the disaster of other sections of the county.

Mr. Carroll Willson has one of the finest fields of corn in the District, and promises a bumper yield.

Mr. and Mrs. McCormick of the City spent the week end and over Sunday, with relatives here. Mr. McCormick lead the Men's Bible Class in the M. E. Sunday School on Sunday afternoon with good effect.

Friends of Thos. R. Reiche have just received communications from him. He is now in Los Angeles, plying his trade, paper-hanging and painting. Before going out to the mines in the fall, he talks of making a trip to Kent.

"Dyke" Harrison, was flitting about in rakish style last week, and when a reason was sought, it was found that the stork had visited his home and left a fine baby girl.

N. G. Ryan, has taken his brother Maxwell's place at Tolchester Beach while the latter is laid up.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Kramer and daughter Miss Frida, have been enjoying a visit among the members of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander's family.

Mr. Alexander has been considerably indisposed, but is on the improve at this writing.
