Wednesday July 7 — 1847

Finished cutting grains & hauled in &c

Thursday 8th

Finished hauling grains having 13 1/2 oz malt

Friday July 9th

A damp day — John Arthur at Sunday pils; the colored hands began to shovel plough the corn

Saturday July 10th

A wet day — The hands transplanted onions raking &c

Monday 12th

A very fine rain last evening & at different times since Saturday — The hands made a running fence in the lot to enclose the potatoes

Tuesday 13th

The hands began to mow in the lots A clear day George Dehoof

Wednesday 14th

The hands with George Dehoof mowing in the Vineyard

Thursday 15th

A warm day — The hands with George Dehoof in the hay Hauled in 2 loads from the lot 1 in the Vineyard — Duncan 1 load — Tons

Friday 16th

All hands at the hay — Mowing in the Close Meadow Brot in 2 loads from the meadows at home J. Dehoof

Saturday 17th

A warm day — All hands at the hay — J. Dehoof Brot 2 very large loads from Close Meadow = 4 1/2 tons

Monday 19th

A warm day — All hands with George Dehoof & (Foreman 3/4 day) at the hay Hauled 2 loads from the Close Meadow = 4 tons

Tuesday 20th

Rain in the afternoon from about 5 P.M. Jno Arthur Sen & Foreman cut oats — Geo Dehoof John & Lewis hauled in 1 load of hay from the meadows along the lane at my Sons

Foreman & Dehoof 3/4 each

Wednesday 21st

A dull day, with occasional showers. Jno. Arthur Sat & Geo. Dehoof finished cutting oats. Jno. Frank & Foreman mowing

Thursday July 22nd 1847

All hands at the hay until about three o'clock when it began to rain heavily — Geo Dehoof & Foreman 3/4 day

Friday July 23

Our own hands hauled wood before dinner & brot in 1 load of hay after

Saturday July 24

The hands at the hay until the afternoon when they were prevented by rain

Monday 26

The hands at the hay until five when they were stopped by a heavy rain 1 load of hay from Eagleson's — 1 1/2 tons — Foreman = 1/2 day

Tuesday 27

A fine day — Brot in all the hay that was out 1 1/2 tons from Eagleson's & a 1/2 loads from our own Meadows

Wednesday 28th

All hands began to rake oats: hauled 1 load

Thursday 29th

Finished the oats — & continued mowing

Friday 30th

Continued mowing up at Eagleson's Meadow

Saturday 31st

Hauled in 1 load from Eagleson's Meadow = 1 ton

A shower about 5 o'clock

Monday 2nd August

A fine day — Our own hands with Joseph Coe at the hay — Brot in the last from Eagleson's = 2 tons

Tuesday 3rd Stonesifer 1/2 day

Our own hands with Eckman mowed & hauled loads of timothy hay Stonesifer

Wednesday 4th

All hands at the hay hauled in four loads from the meadows over the creek — Finished the hay = Stonesifer 1/2 day

Thursday 5th

A fine day — John Frank transplanting oats. James John Arthur in the Shop

Friday 6th

A wet day — The hands variously employed

Saturday 7th

A wet day — John went for corn. John Arthur & James cleaned oats — Frank went with the carriage to Westminster