SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1911.

THE Barroll organ last week could not refute the argument made in the NEWS as regards the "Great Discoverer's" figures so they just published a lot of bosh and threw in a few figures at random to support same. Figures will not lie but liars sometimes figure is certainly a true saying. Stick to the truth hereafter.

THE Republicans of Kent are having a "hot time" over the naming of the State Central Committee. They have almost lost hope of electing any local candidates and will give their whole attention to the committee, The two lawyers of the party, John D. Urie, Esq. and Sidney P. Townshend, Esq. have joined forces and are waging, with John W. Broadway, colored, a heated battle against Messrs. L. Bates Russell, Robert R. Hill and George T. Henry, colored. The Democrats have their hands full with their own family affairs, but the Republicans are furnishing some fun.

THE efforts of the Barroll faction to discredit the new and economical Caroline road law by refusing to levy money to pay the laboring men, is having the opposite effect from what Mr. Barroll intended. The road workers know where to place the blame and will vote accordingly. One gentleman was before the Board Tuesday and told President Davis what the workers thought of the treatment and that he would not touch an anti!

Keep it up, Mr. Barroll, its making votes for the organization.

ALL persons duly registered as qualified voters, and young men who will become of age before the election, are ENTITLED TO VOTE IN THE PRIMARIES OF THAT PARTY TO WHICH THEY BELONG AND WHOSE CANDIDATES THEY SAY THEY WILL SUPPORT. The matter as to whom they voted for at the former or preceding election has nothing whatever to do with their right to vote in the primaries. Of course, it is presumed that the Judges of Election will be able to know in most cases the affiliation of voters and govern themselves accordingly.

A GRAVE ADMISSION

No harm to admit that the county was practically bankrupt. It is a fact, and the Organization did it.—BARROLL ORGAN.

Now, isn't this the limit? Last week the Barroll organ was taking to itself all the credit for saving the people money on roads, schools and what-not! But, lo! when there is BANKRUPTCY they turn to the Organization and exclaim, "You did it!" Is there a voter or taxpayer who believes any such rot as this? The NEWS has been placing the truth before the public and each succeeding issue of the Barroll organ proves our claim. This admission takes rank with that of declaring that the Barroll organ was done mudslinging, and the very next week and thereafter it has been filled to overflowing with misrepresentations.

A GOOD LAW.

Now that the Democratic candidates under the new system are actively engaged in canvassing the county it might be well to call their attention to the provisions of the Corrupt Practices Act. As the primaries are now legalized the provisions of the Corrupt Practices Act will apply with the same force and scope as they do at general elections.

The Act goes on to say that any candidate in person or by representative, who gives any drink, entertainment or provisions to any voter for the purpose of influencing him is liable to a fine of not less than three hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned for one year or both, and further that such persons cannot hold public office or accept public employment for a period of four years.

The voters must also remember that they are liable to the same punishment for accepting any gift of whatever character tendered for political purposes. The scope of the Act is most sweeping and candidates and voters alike will do well to observe its provisions strictly as the States Attorney is obliged to prosecute rigidly any violations of the law which may be called to his attention.

FRED TALBOTT PARDONED.

Ex. Crothers, Ex. Warfield, Ex. Mahool, Blair Lee and other "Golden Crown" politicians have pardoned Fred Talbot and absolved him of his sins. Gee! we'd like to been about the mourners bench when Freddie got goodie, goodie. Reminds us of an African Methodist revival held at Buxton, Iowa. Brother Johnson had "wrastled" long and hard in an effort to "get religion." At last the minister rose wearily. "Ladies and gentlemans," he said, "I move you that Bro. Johnsing's sins be forgiven him." "I second dat motion," came simultaneously from a dozen dusky throats. And his sins were unanimously forgiven. How the mighty have fallen! When men of the Blair Lee type drop on their knees and plead "Show us the way to go home, Fred" and all will be forgiven thee, Bark! "Show me the company you keep and I'll tell you who you are." Politics is but the science of self-interest and Blair Lee best emphasises the fact by stooping to conquer.

A LIVELY STRUGGLE has developed among Republicans over the State Central Committee. Colonel Wm. J. Vannort, John D. Urie and S. P. Townsend seem to be the leaders of one faction claiming to be the regular Republicans while L. Bates Russell, A. Parks Rasin and Robert R. Hill seem to be leading the other faction.

THE official ballots must be taken into the booths and enclosed in an official envelope given out by the judges. The official ballots can be marked outside the voting house by marking an X opposite the names of each candidate for whom you want to vote but the ballot must be enclosed and sealed in the voting booth and put in official envelope, which will have a stub on the end with the voters name and number. The Democratic official ballots and envelopes will be white and the Republicans will be scarlet.

$100 REWARD.

Public sentiment in Kent is strong for the faithful observance of the Corrupt Practice law and it is the duty of all good citizens to put their stamp of disapproval upon all men or candidates who violate it either in spirit or letter. There are more than rumors that an effort is being made to evade this law by an unscrupulous man, and the NEWS convinced of the great good to the county by its observance now offers $100 reward for the arrest and conviction of any violator of the law.

MR. FOXWELL'S HAMAN BILL.

Several weeks ago the Haman-Foxwell Shell Fish Commission came on the bars of Swan Point and carried away hundreds of bushels of young oysters to place on other bars. This was done to carry out some of the features of the Haman Oyster Law that Mr. Garrett Foxwell voted for when he was in the Senate in 1906. Do the oystermen of Kent county want to be represented in the Senate by a man who has so little regard for the Kent county watermen as to do this. And now Mr. Foxwell, through the Boss, has the nerve to ask the people of Kent county to again send him back to Annapolis. He had his opportunity in the session of 1906 to be a friend of the oystermen and deliberately voted to give the corporations control of our oyster bars by voting for the Haman Oyster Law.

MR. BARROLL'S INTEREST

We have been asked by some innocent tax-payers what Mr. Barroll's great activity meant in these primaries. It means that he wants to get COMPLETE CONTROL of the roads of Kent county, the schools of Kent county, the courts of Kent county, the treasury of Kent county—in short, the public offices of Kent county. But above all, he aspires to be Hon. James Alfred Pearce's successor on the bench. No! His organ announced his candidacy some months ago, and there has been no withdrawal or denial of same. Do the voters of Kent county want Mr. Barroll to succeed Judge Pearce on the bench? If so, then encourage it by voting for his ticket, headed by Mr. Foxwell. If you do NOT want Mr. Barroll on the bench, vote for Mr. W. W. Beck and the other excellent men on the Organization ticket. This issue will be denied by some, but it is a fact, nevertheless, and the NEWS takes this opportunity to open the people's eyes to the importance of this Primary.

TRUTH BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

In the NEWS last year a few weeks after the rate of $1.85 was struck the claim was made that its purpose was to shoulder unnecessary burden on the taxpayers that year and that the rate this year would be very much less. Here are the words:

"WITH THIS RATE OF $1.85 FOR 1910, IN 1911 THE RATE WOULD FALL TO AT LEAST $1.20 AND IN 1912 TO $1, UNTIL SOON THE COUNTY WOULD BE ON A CASH BASIS!"

The rate declared Tuesday is $1.22, just 2 cents more than the NEWS figured. "Truth crushed to earth will rise again," and, as promised in the NEWS some months ago, the secret of the big tax of 1910 is now brought to light.

A "ME TOO" LETTER

Mr. Foxwell's Boss Writes A "Me Too" Letter For Him—An Exact Copy Of Letter Sent To Oystermen By Their Friend, Mr. Beck

THE "HAMAN-FOXWELL BUOYS" SPEAK LOUDER THAN WORDS

For brazen effrontery and mulish gall the letter sent out the past week by Hope H. Barroll for his man Foxwell is a dandy.

The fact that Mr. Garrett Foxwell voted for the Haman oyster law when in the Senate has been spoken of by the large body of oystermen in lower Kent, and this action severely censured Many of his friends have stated that they would not believe it unless they saw the Senate Journal. The NEWS had the proof but preferred to wait until a statement was forthcoming.

It came, but from the Boss himself! Yes, Mr. Foxwell's name was at the bottom of it, but it was the product of the Boss' pen and bore his every mark.

This letter was published in the Barroll organ a few weeks ago. In it Mr. Foxwell not only admits voting for the Haman bill but defends the measure. Here are the words used:

"It was voted for not because we approved of it, but because it was the best terms we could get, and because it was our duty to do the very best we could for our constituents.

I now ask, is there a single oystermen in Kent County who will publicly state that during the past five years he has caught one single half bushel of oysters less than he would have caught if this "Amended" Bill had not been passed?

I now ask, is there a single oysterman in Kent County who will openly declare that he cannot now catch oysters from one single acre of ground in the Chesapeaka Bay or in the Chester River, from which he could have caught oysters if the "Amended" Haman Bill had not been passed?

There is not one single oysterman in Kent County who is worse off by the Haman Oyster Law as it was passed, and by the action of the Senators from the Oyster Counties which I have mentioned.

I shall be glad to meet any oysterman who can show he was damaged by the passage of the Haman Oyster Bill."

A letter dated August 9, was sent to the oystermen of Kent by the Organization as follows:

August 9th, 1911.

TO THE WATERMEN OF KENT COUNTY:

We, the undersigned, candidates for the State Senate and House of Delegates in the coming Democratic primaries, do hereby pledge ourselves, if nominated and elected, to vote against any bill which would interfere with the best interests of the watermen, and especially pledge ourselves to vote against the Haman Oyster Bill, or any amendments thereto, affecting the rights of oystermen.

WILLIAM W. BECK,
Candidate for State Senate.
JOHN C. REDMILE,
LEWIS C. AYRES,
Candidates for House of Delegates.

Mr. Barroll, without thinking for a moment of the hole he was putting his man Foxwell in, as soon as he sees one of these letters orders one just like it with commas, etc. Here it is, but he failed to date it before Mr. Beck's:

August 14TH, 1911.

TO THE WATERMEN OF KENT COUNTY:

We, the undersigned, candidates for the State Senate and House of Delegates in the coming Democratic primaries, do hereby pledge ourselves, if nominated and elected, to vote against any bill which would interfere with the best interests of the watermen, and especially pledge ourselves to vote against the Haman Oyster Bill, or any amendments thereto, affecting the rights of oystermen.

GARRETT FOXWELL,
Candidate for State Senate.
CHARLES L. MILLER,
JAMES G. HARRIS,
Candidates for House of Delegates.

The public will at once see Mr. Barroll's plight and condemn by their votes any such insincere and despicable tricks as this. The oystermen have tried Mr. Foxwell and found him wanting and he will be snowed under an avalanche of votes. Even Walter Hadaway who was claiming the district is losing heart. He has reduced his claim 50 votes already. What will it be in two weeks? Keep it up, boys.

EVERYBODY HAPPY.

Rock Hall, August 17, 1911.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We were pleased to learn that Mr. John C. Willson, of our neighborhood had announced himself as a candidate for the State Convention.

While Jack is one of our young farmers yet he fully realizes the vast importance of our water interests and he as well as most every man in the community is ready to fight any legislation detrimental to our great oyster industry.

While there are a few who for political reasons, "regardless of consequences," are apparently working hard to confirm the Haman Oyster Law and possibly force through the next Legislature whatever amendments seem necessary to Haman & Co. to dwarf the industry so far as individual citizens are concerned and gradually place the entire business within reach of corporate interests; yet thank fortune the ranks of these "few" are becoming thinned every day, and we predict that with the firm stand of "particularly the young men," when August 29 arrives the Haman exponents will take to the woods; leaving nothing but several professional politicians and healers to espouse his cause.

OYSTERMAN.

THE COMPARISON.

Under the old road system the roads cost from $30,000 to $40,000. Tax rate $1.85 in 1910.	During first yea under the new road law the roads cost $16,000! Tax Rate $1.22 in 1911. Will be less in 1912.

Mr. Tax-Payer are you interested in having this system continued and your taxes decreased. This is one of the planks of the platform on which the Organization asks support.

A VIEW OF THE CAMPAIGN

Chestertown, Md., July 25, 1911

MESSRS. EDITORS OF NEWS:

To one who has no ambition, what ever, to be called a politician, who is perfectly content to view from afar the factional battle which has been waged in this county so long—even to such an one it has become monotonous almost to the nauseating point.

The game of politics is to beat the other fellow, and no matter how much superior virtue one side claims to posesss and no matter how much mud it slings against the other side the virtue is sung and the mud is slung, for no other purpose than to delude the unthinking public into casting a vote for some particular men who have announced themselves as candidates for some particular office.

That is the condition in this county today. The war has been conducted along lines, that, if human lives were the cost instead of human reputations, it would long ago been declared uncivilized and stopped by the law of nations. It seems a pity that some code cannot be applied to quiet the unseemly strife; and, by the way, it is also surely deplorable that the general public has to accept men for office, picked out before a primary election by a scheming wire-pulling politician, and the best thinking part of the community compelled to swallow candidates who are the tools of one who has no other end in view except to further his ambitions.

It must be confessed, however, that of the two county papers, representing the two hostile political factions, the KENT NEWS has pursued the more dignified course in this war, and no doubt has won to the side of the so-called Organization the more conservative of the people of Kent. It is, to say the least, amusing to read the harpings of the Barroll Organ on the virtues of the "Antis," and the everlasting perfidy of everybody and everything connected with the other side.

It is wonderful to hear of the absolute confidence they express in everybody voting their way; in every plan they have concocted for the management of the affairs of state;—and of the absolute dishonesty and incapability of everybody who happens to line up with the Organization.

It is diverting to listen to their talk of divorcing from politics every department of the county—roads, schools, licenses, taxes, oysters—and managing all upon a high plane of moral and political rectitude, posing before the community as marvels of propriety and patriotism.

The Barroll Organ is unable to see anything good come out of Nazareth, and if the county is to be saved, it must be through the mighty agency of BARROLLISM.

The road system, as now operated, is a shame and disgrace, say they; but let "us" have it, and our highways will straighten and level with magical ease and swiftness, operated by those, forsooth, who voted the Barroll ticket.

They exploit upon a weary public the $1.85 tax rate, and also the great 63 cents reduction, and want everybody to believe they are benefactors of mankind—when to the merest tyro, both the raise and the reduction, were political moves. The $1.85 was levied to damn the Old Board; the $1 22 to surround the heads of the New Board with halos of glory and catch the little fishes at the primaries this month. Why, if they had been consistent, the tax rate would have been either raised or kept at the same figures. If $1 85 were levied to pay debts and debts are still unpaid and it is their object to get the county on a cash basis, why lower the tax rate? It's easy. Political sweets to catch the fly in the primary. Investigation of the county finances was undertaken, not so much in the interest of the common people as to drive out the rascals, and put the honest (?) men in their places, men ready to do the bidding of one Hope Barroll, b' gosh!

But to ever right thinking man that same Hope Barroll over-reached himself by a letter that appeared over his signature in a late edition of his pitiful newspaper servant. Again he wants to gull the public into believing that the management of the public schools is entirely divorced from politics—not if Barroll has anything to do with them. That same gentleman has been too long quaffing from the intoxicating chalice of politics not to feel the stimulating effects of such draughts in every move he makes. His very soul is steeped in political ozone; he lives, moves, and has his being in an atmosphere of political scheming and intrigue. He looks upon every man in the county with an eye single to his vote, and every incident is important only as it bears upon the result of a county primary. So how under Heaven could he think of the public schools disconnected from politics? What wonderful virtue Hope Barroll assumes to himself when he claims to have recommended certain young ladies whose parents were Organization democrats. He can deny all he pleases, but that very assertion is made at this time for political purpose. "See me," it says, "what a disinterested creature I can be at times. How I am working for the good of the community. Don't you think that I am a good one to vote with at the coming primaries?" Heaven forbid! The mystery is why should Hope Barroll have been asked to recommend anybody for anything? What sort of influence was he supposed to exert? Surely he would not confess that it was political in connection with the schools? If it wasn't, was it the influence that emanates from a man held high in the estimation of the community, a man whose life has always been separated from intrigue of every sort, and whose honesty of purpose could never be questioned? Let the public decide.

And then again, referring to his letters, what a self-satisfied implication of superiority there was in the manner he referred to "Fred and Will Usilton." "Am I," forsooth, to be mentioned in the same breath with "such men." Ye gods! Who is Hope Barroll? Since when has he been clothed with the unapproachable greatness he would attribute to himself? What ordinary mortal in Kent would suffer when compared to H. H. Barroll; and suppose the veil that conceals his inner life from the public view were rent in twain, and his history were thus displayed written in all its truth and verity, I wonder would he say, "I thank my God, I am not as other men are." Who is he anyhow? A dominating political boss, who desires to rule the public as he rules his office; one whose end and aim it is to ride over every opponent as a steam roller moves over a stone.

Are the people of this county to stand for such a condition as he desires to bring about? Are the men who have fought their way to the front by lives of unimpeachable conduct to be set aside and men foisted upon us by this same miscall reformer? God forbid!

I cannot close this without alluding to this man Barroll's disgusting taste in bringing into any sort of newspaper controversy the fair name of anybody distinguished by her refinement and lovableness. But that is only on a par with his attitude toward everything and everybody not in harmony with his views. "Let everything stand from under" is his motto in dealing with questions paramount in his brain today. To say the least, his course with reference to the lady in question was indecent. The only good that can come out of it is that men can see his true characteristics and reach the conclusion that the same instincts that led him to drag a fair lady's name through the sort of filth that necessarily attaches itself to anybody who is brought personally into newspaper notoriety—these same instincts direct him in other pursuits.

To my mind the best way to rid the public of him is to snow him so deeply under at the primaries that his best political friends will never be able to dig him out.

TO THE WATERMEN OF KENT COUNTY:

We, the undersigned, candidates for the State Senate and House of Delegates in the coming Democratic primaries, do hereby pledge ourselves, if nominated and elected, to vote against any bill which would interfere with the best interests of the watermen, and especially pledge ourselves to vote against the Haman Oyster Bill, or any amendments there to, affecting the rights of oystermen.

To the Republican Voters

OF KENT COUNTY, MD.

We, the undersigned, who attended the conference called by John C. Davis, Secretary of the Republican State Central Committee for Kent county, on August 10, 1911, in answer to the misleading and incorrect expressions contained in the Enterprise of August 16, 1911, under the caption, "Where the Republican Party Leaders Stand," say:

That the statement contained that the said meeting was a party caucus is absolutely incorrect and misleading, because the clear and unequivocal understanding, as expressed openly in said conference and concurred in by all present before the transaction of any business, was that as said meeting was called as a conference and not as a caucus, no action of said meeting could bind any one present, and everybody present was to be free to support and vote for any one else who might be a candidate for nomination to any office on the Republican ticket on August 29, 1911.

And further, that it was openly stated that as so few Republicans were present, it could not be considered a representative meeting of the Republican party of Kent county, and also for that reason its action should not, and could not, bind any one present.

That of the thirty-five names or more attached to said statement only a very small number of them had been present at said meeting, and therefore the others must have been induced to sign said statement upon one-sided representations made to them by whoever may have presented the paper to them for their signatures.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. LAMBERT, JR.,
Secretary to Conference;
