To paint a door Cill &c.

Take equal parts of Lime & Hickory ashes well ground & mixed with Linseed Oil, give 3 Coats, the last thick after which sift on Sand it will resemble freestone

---

To point the Roof next the Chimneys

Mix plaister with hair & 1/3 of the Scales of Iron from the Smith, neatly put on outside

---

Cure for a Horse overfed

Bleed his mouth, & at the Raps of the fetlocks scrape his soles & pour Sp. of turpentine on them

---

To fatten a Horse

Give him Gun powder & Ashes in his feed or Sp. of turpentine a small spoonful on his feed two or three times ~~a day~~ for a week, then leave off & repeat in two weeks after —

Diseases in Sheep &c. & Cures

Scab in Sheep, Mallanders & Sellanders in Horses, Eruptions & Lice in Stock generally

Camphire one drachm
Sugar of lead half a drachm, &
Mercurial Ointment 1 ounce
Sp. of Turpentine

Poison by eating Laurel, Ground Ivy &c.

Split an Onion & put it under each foot leg, or Wash it, & apply it to the same place
The contents of a fresh egg to be put down the throat is recomended

Rot

Fast the Sheep 12 hours, then give 1 Spoonfull Sp. of Turpentine 2 of water, & give to each three doses 6 days between

Ticks in Lambs, & Sheep

After Shearing the Sheep dip the body (keeping the head clear) in a weak solution of Arsenick, & dry the wool by squeezing it
Separate the wool along the back & shoulders
& sprinkle Scotch Snuff on the skin

Ticks to prevent

1 Gallon of Tar, added to 8 lb. of Salt butter, with which smear after shearing & repeat it in October

Worms in the head to prevent

Tar the Noses well after shearing, & once a month during the summer, say to 1st October, or Smear with Rancid Oil

Worms in the head to cure

½ lb. Scotch Snuff
½ oz. Asafeda
2 gll. boiling water
} to be injected up the nose frequently from Oct. to January, or

Scotch Snuff, or fine Salt blown up the nose with a Quill

Unhealthy Lambs in the Fall

Tar, Sulpher, &
Scotch Snuff sprinkled over the feed

Scab,

Sp. of Turpentine mixed with lard, or
A strong decoction of Tobacco
Lye of Wood Ashes one third
Hogs lard as much as the lye will dissolve
Tar from the Tar bucket, a small qty. &
Sp. of Turpentine 1/8 of the whole } Anoint 3 times intervening three days first wash with soft Soap

---

Tobacco decoction
Lime water
Oil of Vitriol

Scouring in young Lambs

Remove the excrement wash clean, & rub the parts with dry Clay to prevent adhesion