Certificate as p. price Lette

26 Oct 1786

Sir

I am favd with yours of the 8th Curt. you Packt was rec. the 27. when the Hacker was down in the roads, it was with 29th pail on board before I by the above Certificate you will see that it was with the Eve. of that day & the said that I did not get the B. of Lad. till the fol. when it was forwarded, hence no blame in charge can be against me, the Hacker was put into Holyhead but will shortly and is now ordered round to Liverpool. I am Convey & I hope prior arrive safe, but that as it may I consider myself free of blame that no doubt, but you will be of the same opin: if that has been pressed I shall be glad to forward any Linens you may wish for this being my

J & J Rankin Gunnock } Gentlemen

I am favoured with yours of the 17th & in reply I now inclose you my Acct Current & Ballance in your favour £2.5.1½ Trust when Mr Humphry will pay you when demanded. You observe I charge you with Rum deficient £6.5.4 wn the Arbitrators gave against you as it appeared to them that the Cask in question had been spiled in our Cooper like manner hence they concluded it was done on board the Vessel notwithstanding it was sworn by the Capt. & Crew to the contrary
