The Trial did not leave this Harbour this monday morning & I have no doubt shll arrive ere this goes to hand — It will be peculiarly necessary peculiarly necessary to hasten her on the Birth to make way for the Johns as she will be loaded fully I expect tomorrow & of course the birth will be vacant then & both in Dublin — If you have no farther occasion for the Johns protest please send it by some private hand or by the Margaret if she comes shortly as I find there will be demurrs about paying Freight for damd Goods

Yours truly
