Mr H. McCay } Sir
Dromore

Belfast 5 May 1807

Recd yours enclosing J. Dickson's Note for £34.2.5 wh is of no manner of use to me nor is it Customary to send such payments in lieu of Cash advanced, I have paid every shilling furnished in yr Acct & expect that you will remit me Natl Notes in course as I really cannot afford to lay out of such sums

I am Sir Yours &c C B

James Christy } Sir
Moyallen

Coms 1,4,11

Please send me a bill for B Getty & 3 Months on Dublin for £82.19.10 the Coms to Acct I had difficulty to get to get them under 50/p Mt G. says he will sell no more under that Price presuming for Plates of other Ashes that Vanilla must advance ~~soon~~ Materials Pot & Pearl being each 80/- P Cwt and very scarce in fact I think there is every reason to believe that Vanilla will advance for the foregoing Reason If you like them you can act as seems meet The last Pot Ash was of the same Parcel as the former & as carefully chosen as I could however it is impossible to get them all precisely the same Quality

Yours Respectfully
Chas Birnie

W. Mollan } Dr Sir
Dublin

Belfast 5 May 1807

Recd yours and enclose you a copy of the Wine Cocket wh certainly was given to the Mrs I suppose you must have overlooked the business as the 4 Dikes only were endorsed on the back of the Cocket and of the Trial in Ballast or otherwise as she is wanting due

C Birnie

Mr Silas Weir } Dr Sir
Philadelphia

7th

I was duly favd with your's of the 10 July this conveyance & note that Mr Baker has promised to pay you on being furnished with an Acct wh I now enclose Ballance due charging Interest £50.14.1 Irish Currency which you are hereby empowered to receive for my Acct & remit the same in any manner you ~~think~~ fit most Convenient with respect to the Acct it requires no explanation the Invoice of Linens & sales of Ashes having been regularly furnished at the time as were also the proper documents produced by a Survey of Merchants held on the 3 Casks of Ashes after their being sold wh hereby I was obliged to refund to the purchaser £96.1.0½ on Acct of the Quality being so inferior, indeed I have been much surprised at Messrs B & C never replying to the May letters I wrote on the subject the Interest specified for itself you will therefore get it settled without delay as I had always reason from your recomendation to suppose that those Gentlemen were fair in their transactions C B

S B } Brn