Cosgrave & Wallace } Gentlemen
Dublin }

I have been long without any of your favours by the present you learn that the Johns is nearly loaded & will clear in all this week unless I find by yr reply in course that the Trade is far back in her loading don't fail to advise by return Call on Mr J Hamilton for 3 Casks of Brandy for Mess Dr J H & Co Cn Dawne says he & all hands will swear that all the bags he had was delivered to your Porters this time from they mistook from the delivery & you get the forgot of the Battery Co wants mine to pay them but that I have no Notice of Mr Thompson should an a letter had been time since relative to the accounts of the Vessels wh neither he nor I can give any exact amounts as I cannot furnish furnish up the Acct farther than I have yours I have now earnestly to request that you will have the differences in Acct so far as I furnish settled by some means or other & furnish me with yr subsequent Charges when I will make up the whole to the present day in fact unless this be done immediately the business must fall to the ground & disgrace to you & I will be the unavoidable consequence they are absolutely threatg to stop the Vessels wh I can sum will be done very shortly & I really cannot bear them, hoping you will attend to this
