I got home in due time on Tuesday to my surprise found that the Johns had not arrived & that the Dispatch was loaded & gone to sea & the Irish Silk on the Birth having been detained by the Residuum however she is now loaded & cleared yesterday to sail to day. I have not yet had time to examine any Accts but will as soon as may be & report I expected to have had the Bill last night, I hope you hant forgot it if so to send it also. I was so fortunate as not to miss all the Brimstone &c were so down my Accts the proceeds of wh will at least pay my Ex to Dublin - With best respects to all from

I am sorry to find that you were obliged to go into port now especially as the Dispatch made her passage is discharged & loaded & gone to sea some days since of course there is an wonderful outcry about you - I thought there were winds last week that we had had enabled you to have come out but I must have been mistaken for certainly you wd not miss any opp - the sooner you are here the better
