HARRISON W. VICKERS, JR. ESQ.

Nominee of the Democratic Party for State's Attorney of Kent County.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Miller, of Kennedyville, had with them last week for several days, the following friends: Mrs. Calvin Ogle and daughter, Miss Beulah, Mrs. Eicholtz, of Thurston, and Mrs. Nellie Fisher, all of Frederick county, Mrs. Amos and daughter, Miss Mildred, of Pittsburg, Pa., and Miss Gertie Boone, of Baltimore city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. H. Weer, entertained the following friends in their comfortable home last week: Mrs. Hayes and Miss Annie Hayes, of Galena, mother and sister of Mrs. Weer; Mrs. Money and Miss Petticord.

Miss Vansant, of Baltimore, was the guest on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar R. Pennington, and with the latter attended service in the M. P. Church on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Wm. T. Hague is on a few days visit to friends in Baltimore. The recently broken wrist of Mrs. Hague is near about well, the bandage is now off and the arm is out of the sling.

Mr. Wm. Archibald and sister, Mrs. Rachel Hill and her son, Mr. Harry Hill made the round trip to Newark, Del., by rail on Thursday last.

Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Mullineaux had a two days recreation in Baltimore last week, Thursday and Friday, by the steamer Susquehanna from Betterton. They most heartily enjoyed a tour of the Western suburbs of the city, with Mr. Harry E. Gilbert, attorney-at-law, in his splendid four or five thousand dollar touring car. Mr. Gilbert is President of the "Realty Securities Corporation of Baltimore," including Mt. Alto, Lenox and Tusculum, where are found the most beautiful and desirable suburban locations for residences in the city limits. Mr. Gilbert and his young and beautiful bride of a few week ago, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Mullineaux at their lovely home on Park Heights, Thursday evening and night. They report having a most delightful pleasure relation, and returned to their parsonage home in Kennedyville Friday evening.

Mr. W. M. Clendaniel attended church service Sunday morning, looking well and feeling much improved under the treatment of his doctor in Salisbury. His son George is convalescing from typhoid fever. Their many friends will be delighted when they are both fully restored to health.

Business is now very lively in and about Mr. Baldwin's new tomato factory, as this is the height of the season.

Miss Lulu Vandyke, now fast recovering from her long confinement from typhoid fever, was taken last Wednesday, by her faithful physician, Dr. Hines, of Chestertown, in a large, comfortable touring car, to her sister's, Mrs. Towney Crew. Reports say she stood the passage well and is doing nicely.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. P. Church will hold their monthly meeting next Friday evening, the 15th, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clendaniel.

BETTERTON NOTES.

Mrs. McDonald and children returned to their home in Baltimore after spending a week with Mrs. McDonald's sister, Mrs. Harvey Brice.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Owens are spending a week at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Mattie Tull and daughter, Miss Grace, spent Friday in Baltimore.

Mrs. Robert Young has closed The Ferncliffe and returned to Baltimore.

Mr. Howard Turner has returned from Norfolk, Va., where he has been during the week on business.

Mr. Fred. S. Groves, president of the Baltimore and Philadelphia Steamboat Company, with his wife and party of friends, have been stopping at Ericsson Cottage for two weeks.

Rumor has it that we are to have a canning factory that will can herring roe, herring and other things. We hope this is a true report. Now why not a creamery and ice plant!

It is also reported we are to have another hotel and a large boarding cottage before another season opens.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Officer Clarence Culley had the fright of his life last Thursday morning. On retiring at mid-night Wednesday his three year old daughter was in bed with him, on awakening early next morning the child was missing. He began a search in the other rooms, but failing to find his pet the thought occured to him that she had arisen during the night and fell downstairs and was now dead at the bottom, snatching up a lighted lamp he hurriedly descended the stairway, but the child was not there, then finding the outer door unlocked, his next thought was that someone had entered and kidnapped the child. All the time he was in a desperate state of mind. On going up stairs again he took another look in his wife's room without result and then the members of the family began to wake and Mr. Cullen's mother hearing his frantic commotion inquired the cause and being informed she reolied: "Why here she is in my bed." The child was found cuddled under the arm of her grandmother sound asleep. An immense weight was lifted from Culley's throbbing mind, but he didn't get over the scare for more than a day.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Porter, of Baltimore, has been enjoying a vacation here among their relatives and friends the past week.

A number of strangers visited this town last Friday night and made a round of the business centers of the town. When about to leave they delared this town to be lots livilier than Chestertown where they are well known.

The Gospel meetings being held in Crossby's Grove for two weeks came to a close on Sunday night in the presence of a very large gathering.

Nothing doing in the oyster business so far barring the canning house supply. Oysters are in good condition and there is an immense spread of young oysters from this year's spat.

Bay bushes along the shores are about to burst forth into full bloom. This denotes, so the knowing ones say, that Jack Frost is near by.

Mrs. M. Kramer and daughter, of the city, spent several days here among their relatives the past week. Miss Freda has enjoyed such a good time here this summer that she finds it almost impossible to stay from this side of the bay.

Now that the evenings are longer and cooler the Odd Fellows are endeavoring to make their lodge meetings more interesting, socially, for next meeting the members will relate the most amusing event of their experience.

Misses Daisy Williams, of Baltimore, Blanche Power, of Millington, Bessie Brice and Madge Crawford, of Lankford, and Dr.'s Charles Abbott and Keys, of Philadelphia, and others have been guests during the past two weeks of Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Selby.

Miss Mildred Clark returned last Saturday after spending ten days with relatives at Middletown and Blackbird, Del.

Dr. Phillip Turner, of Philadelphia, spent last Friday with his brother, Mr. Clarence Turner, of near town.

Mr. Phillip Wood, of Wilmington, Del., spent a few days last week with friends in town.

Miss Mildred Gillespie returned last Saturday after spending a week with friends in Baltimore.

Quite a few of the Adventists congregation are attending the Adventist Camp which is being held at Dover, Del. this week.

Messrs. Henry M. Tonkin and John H. Ahern left this week for Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

Mrs. R. E. Feddeman and children returned home last Thursday after spending ten days with her brother, Mr. William Cacy, of Dumont, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Mallalieu, of Delph, England, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mallalieu, of this town.

Mrs. Jessie G. Hackett returned last Friday after spending several weeks with relatives and friends at Cumberland, Md. She has taken a room at Central Hotel.

Mrs. Jonathan Jones is having erected a fine new residence near Millington.

Notwithstanding the busy season, the "Cole & Rice" show was well patronized on Tuesday.

Mr. Sudler G. Wiest has rented the J. E. Hurlock house, near the school house, which Mr. Brown Duling has been occupying for several years, and will occupy it in the near future. Mr. Duling will move to Marcus Hook.

Messrs. N. F. Hobbs, Armour and Richard Mabrey spent last Sunday with Mr. Armour's family at Rising Sun, Cecil county, Md., making the trip in Mr. Hobbs' auto. They report a very pleasant day.

Mrs. Sallie Moore and Mrs. Emma Shahan were guests last Wednesday of the Misses Gordon, near town.

Vacation is over and school days started last Monday. The children seem to understand what it means, they were ready. The teachers for this term are Prof. L. C. Robinson, principal; Miss Anna B. Smyth, of Chestertown, vice-principal, and Misses Mattie G. Hazell and Clara H. Bryan, assistants.

Little Miss Helen Plummer returned last Saturday after spending the summer with her parents, at Blackbird, Del.

Mr. Richard Poore was taken to St. Agnes Hospital, Baltimore, last Thursday for treatment. He was operated on on Friday and the last report was he was doing as well as could be expected. He was accompanied there by Dr. Merritt Brice, and his son, Mr. James Poore. His wife, who has been critically ill for two months, is convalescent. Mr. and Mrs. Poore have the sympathy of the community.

Mr. Charles S. McKinley, formerly of Galena, has rented the Numbers shop on Sassafras street and opened a shoe shop. Mr. McKinley comes highly recommended as a shoe cobbler.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

The funeral of Mrs. George A. Hart, who died at Sudlersville Thursday, took place last Saturday. She had been sick with typhoid fever for two weeks and was a good woman.

John Albert, the nine months old son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Nickerson, residing near town, died last Saturday. Funeral was held on Monday afternoon conducted by Rev. F. H. Mullineaux, of Kennedyville; interment in Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were: Chas. Hague, George Webb, Wilmer Webb and Albert Baxter. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd in charge.

Isabel Myrtle Johnson, aged thirteen months, died at the residence of her grandfather, John D. W. Vansant, near Fairlee, Thursday. Funeral Saturday at 10 a. m.; interment in Chester cemetery, Dr. Barrett officiating, Charles L. Dodd undertaker.

MRS. EMILY GALE

Mrs. Emily Gale, widow of the late lamented John Gale, died at her home on Queen street, Chestertown, last Friday, aged 47 years. The deceased before marriage was Miss Gemmill and during her whole life among us her conduct has been exemplary, kind, gentle and unselfish. While in Worton she was an active member of St. James Church and her demise leaves a void hard to fill. She was quiet and modest but did her part on every occasion. She was a good woman. She leaves a step-son, Prof. Walter Gale, and two daughters, Misses Addie and Ethel Gale. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon conducted by Rev. G. A. Morris, assisted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little; interment was in Chester Cemetery. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Walter T., John E. and J. Ellsworth Morris, Edgar P. Beck, R. G. Nicholson and Wm. B. Willis. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd.

MISS MARY GREY

News reached here Wednesday of the death of Miss Mary Grey, a niece of Mrs. William E. Jarrell, of Washington avenue, who died at the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, after a short illness of typhoid fever. The deceased lived at Goldsboro, Caroline county, and was about 27 years of age. Miss Grey attended Washington College in the normal department and had been teaching seven years, when, last year she resigned to take up nursing, which position she had filled for a year when death overtook her. She was a sweet, lovable young lady and had many friends in Chestertown who mourn her sad demise. Mr. W. F. Jarrell and mother will attend the funeral today.

THE ROBBINS' CIRCUS.

Performances Praiseworthy Both Afternoon and Evening.

The Frank A. Robbins' circus which exhibited in Salem Tuesday drew unusually large audiences both afternoon and evening. In the evening every seat was not only filled but people were sitting on the ground in front of the tiers of seats. A fact worthy of attention was the courteous attention given by the attendants in assisting persons to seats.

All of the acts were good, the man walking and descending steps on his head, the trapeze performers, tight-wire walkers, bareback riding, athletes and clowns were all good and have aided in building up a reputation for the Robbins' circus which guarantees it good audiences every time it comes to this city. The fact that the tents were crowded so soon after the other circus performing here a few days ago is quite a recommendation for Mr. Robbins and his excellent show.

This show will be in Chestertown on Thursday, September 21.

Crap Shooters Caught.—Officers Cooper and Hyland made a successful raid on the colored crap shooters early last Sunday morning. The alert officers found a crowd of colored men in a butcher's stable on Cannon street gambling as if their very life depended upon the outcome. Officers Cooper and Hyland after watching the gambling from the outside and making sure of the identity of the participants made a raid and such a scrambling as they did was a sight to behold. One of the colored men threw a coat over Officer Cooper's head, but after a short struggle four of the gamblers were arrested and later three more were taken and placed in jail. A hearing was held before Justice Loud who sentenced all seven to the House of Correction for six months. Those sentenced were "Bear" Dent, "Jumbo" Davis, "Buddy" Rattler, Simon Chase, Buck Green, Arthur Green and Cornelius Green. Jesse Ringgold was in the crowd but made his escape.

Queer Fish Trap.—Some time last week the miller at Mr. T. H. Topping's grist mill, near town, found the turbine wheels of the plant were not doing their work properly. The water that furnishes the power for these wheels comes from the mill pond through a large pipe. Mr. Hylie Orem was sent for and he found, upon investigation, that this pipe had become so filled with black cat fish from the pond as to stop the flow of water and seriously interfere with the working of the mill. Mr. Orem soon remedied the trouble and carried home a big mess of the "cats."
