J. C. Gambles
Dublin } I am favd with yours of the 23 & am very sorry that you & C. & M. shd have had any dispute with respect to the Charges of Freight when it is considered that the Vessel was detained at least 8 or 10 days for the Article when other goods offered & were refused, I am sure you'll consider it very moderate but even independant of that we have found it necessary to advance the Freight a little as the Vessels were absolutely losing every Voyage you have always been charged less than any other person — Respecting the Bottle you say was lost if you refer to the B of Lading you will find a particular Clause & the reason assigned — I shall always be happy to accomodate you on reasonable terms —
27 Apl 1808 Yours &c C. Byrne

Wm Hone
Dublin } I was favd with yours of the 20 by Mr Chapman. The Bill I merely carried for acceptance to accomodate a friend to whom I returned it where it is now I do not realy know I am unacquainted with Mr Hays but appears to me that after your having drawn the Bill you gain nothing in refusing to pay it when due & then take such mode of redress as the nature of yr Grievance by Mr Hays will legally point out
