Sir I wrote you on the 8th June stating a bale you owe me & requesting the Amt £4.5.0 of Capt Bisset to w^h in yours of the 11th w^h is now before me you make no reply — With respect to the Acc^ts you allude to they were either informal or came too late that is after a single dividend was struck I cannot at present say w^t but you may be assured of your any Dividend on their Acc^ts — The small bale above mentioned w^h was regularly settled & first cow^d opportunity will oblige

Sir I wrote you the 24th ~~little~~ respecting a small acc^t of Fr^t w^h you are due me but I suppose the letter has miscarried as Mr Watterson tells me he has not rec^d orders to pay it you'll therefore be so good as to ~~do~~ desig^n him to do so as I am actually the Am^t in advance long since — The reason why this acc^t was not paid long since was that a servant of Mr Fullers said he had paid the Fr^t of a jaunting car w^h was ch^d to y^r acc^t being in y^r name the fellow was found out to have told a lie & Mr F paid the Freight

Mr Watterson can tell you this acc^t is now correct —

Yours C. Birnie
