Cartwright & Bedford
Bristol

3d December 1806

Gentlemen

On board the Swallow Charles Courtenay Master now Clear to sail first fair wind for your Port I have Shipt Four Boxes Linens marked CB # 1 to 4 which I received from Messrs Birnie & Cunningham Merchts Dunnimney and w.h you will please forward to Messrs Thomas Thom Cartwright & Bedford Mrs Bowdley

Wishing them safe to hand

I remain
Gentlemen
Your obt Servt
C B 4 C

Thomas Thom Ridout Oliver & Co
Bristol

Gentlemen

I have shipt on board the Swallow Capt. Courtenay Master now Clear to sail (first fair wind) for your Port, Four Boxes of Linen Cloth marked CB # 46 to 49 which I received from Messrs Birnie Cunningham Merchants Dunnimney

Wishing them safe to hand

I remain
Gentlemen
Your obt Servt
C B 4 C

Mrs Mrs Cartwright & Bedford
Bowdley

Gentlemen

I have shipt on board the Swallow Capt. Courtenay Mr. now clear to sail for Bristol, Four Boxes of Linens marked CB # 1 to 4 wh I received from

Messrs Cunningham Merchants Dunnimney and Consigned to Messrs Cartwright & Bedford Merchants Bristol

Wishing them safe to hand

I remain
Gentlemen
Your most obt Servt
C B 4 C

Thomas Vernor Esq & Co

Notice & Catalogue of Goods to be sold on Thursday the 8th Inst at the White Lines Hall at 11 O'Clock

700 bundles, 13 Ships Cotton yarn

Birnie
Auctioneer

Messrs Quintin
London

8th

Gentlemen

I was duly favd with your's of the 4th May & 10th Ult. to which I confess I should have replied ere now but waited getting payment for the Glass wh I daily expected but only received a few days since — Enclosed you have Sales, Wt Acct. £47:14:10 - also Mr. Elliot's Bill c 21. Dis. Ft. on Thomas Lewis & Son for £44:1:4 & 8/ £47:14:10 - I fear from this transaction you will not much look the idea of forwarding any more goods to this Market for sale in fact there is no field for sale in the Flat Glass line - With respect to looking after how they are selling articles at Auction that I cannot determine — Suppose you send a small case or two assorted by way of trial in wh case you