Sir

I was pd with your of the 22nd Curt. the former I did not consider necessary to reply to expecting the arrival of the Vessel which is not yet the case & the wind has been contrary for a long time & is now fair the arrival may be hourly looked for I am therefore of opinion that it is unnecessary to insure but this is a difficult point for me to decide on for you, if she does not arrive perhaps I may think proper to do it as soon as they arrive & shall feel no hesitation in forwarding them being with your train &c.
