Hallet & Co
Excellent

I am favoured with yours of the 16 Inst. The Williams is not yet arrived. The Plants you mention are rather an unusual thing & I know of no precedent for Freight but suppose from 4 to 6 each —

~~The Plants you mention are rather an unusual~~

There are three or four Dublin but bad gray Jacks & three or four difficult to get vessel to engage. The Hurock is very steady again — I will oblige me by asking to Jones & Co. & procuring me a copy of his usual charges for the different cases in which he is employed &c &c & any more he may know of &c &c

Sir
In reply to your favour of the 17th I state briefly that what you know to be fact, namely, that you deposited in my care certain luggage for which you wished to pay a certain charge, which was the regard on; & may that have previous to your order for removal the was a discovery of all I could by inquiry learn you that circumstance prevented me from forwarding the luggage that time.

I immediately took steps for the recovery of the articles mentioned, namely a travelling piece, Powder Horn, & Shot bag, which at length offered at a very considerable expense & trouble, the Shot bag offered at a very considerable expense & trouble, the Powder Horn & articles were recovered & the Shot bag found as before mentioned. The articles were recovered & the Shot bag found as before mentioned. Finally the goods safely delivered to the care of a Ship master who Rec'd a Lading & took them aboard to C. Williams with orders to deliver them to you. Freight, on being paid the rate of Hay for which you & I agreed, together with the monday charge of shipping to with the freight I had no concern with it, the transaction so far as my part was perfectly fair & honorable & tho' you threaten me with law, Expedition & Chancery & fall as both James & me not found out to the letter & have found it is not the general or any other person to do me an injury, but I have desired to commit a little speculation & you the profit & an profit of the trouble & cost have fallen on you by your without knowing what happened, as you could never have found it, the honor & secure — the transaction & stock so stated without consulting you & obtaining his concurrence & he in a very friendly manner gave me his advice as other as altered & finally pointed you in his advice as other as altered & finally pointed you in his advice as other as altered.

As the matter now stands the goods despatched to Mollans for your order have landed with the exception of the charge and I cannot of course have the freight charged and I cannot of course have the freight charged.

They are also short two packages to the value of the amount of the freight charged. They are also short two packages to the value of the amount of the freight charged. Had you shown either as to when you left them with me. Had you shown either as to when you left them with me. Had you shown either as to when you left them with me
