Friday March 7th 1851 — A considerable fall of snow - Andrew preparing the wagon for Baltimore Jas. Davidson finishes the roller &c — Jas. D.

Saturday March 8th — A moderate day. Andrew went to the mill for flour Tom at sundry jobs

Monday March 10th — A blowing day Andrew went to Balt. Thos went with him to Westminster

Tuesday March 11th — A pleasant day. Thos. grubbed &c took Franks place while he killed a calf

Wednesday March 12th — A very mild spring like day. Thos. grubbing &c Andrew in Baltimore

Thursday March 13th — A very mild day - Andrew ~~[illegible]~~ returned from Baltimore Thomas in the garden

Friday March 14th — Andrew having returned from Balto. went to the mill with plaster & assisted Thos. to plant potatoes - A very mild pleasant day

Saturday March 15th — Very mild - Andrew began to plough for oats. Thos. in the garden

Monday March 17th — A heavy fall of snow - Andrew repairing harness. Thos. at sundry jobs

Tuesday March 18th — The snow continued to fall until about 9 A.M. when it cleared & began to thaw And. & Thos assisting my Sisters to fill their ice house with snow

Wednesday March 19th — A continued thaw: the snow fast disappearing Andrew & Thos. threshing rye

Thursday March 20th 1851 — Considerable frost last night. Andrew & Thos. continued threshing rye

Friday March 21st — Some frost last night Andrew & Thos. at the rye as on yesterday

Saturday March 22nd — A dull cloudy day - Andrew & Thos. finished threshing & cleaned up 1½ bush. rye — 16½ qts

Monday March 24th — Violent rains & snow yesterday, to day very pleasant - And. & Thos. cutting wood

Tuesday March 25th — A fine day - Andrew & Thos cut wood &c — Settled with Jas. Davidson Mr 1925 sale pd. $48.12½

Wednesday March 26th — A very fine day - Andrew went to Mr Eye's & assisted G Tom. hauled wood, some frost.

Thursday March 27th — Very mild - Thos. painted the cart &c. Andrew absent

Friday March 28th — Very mild - Thos & Andrew ploughing oats ground

Saturday March 29th — The ground being too wet to plough And. & Thos. hauled wood &c

Monday March 30th — Very pleasant - Resumed ploughing - Andrew & Thos at the ploughing

Tuesday April 1st — A pleasant day - Andrew & Thos as on yesterday ploughing —

Wednesday April 2nd — A very wet day - Andrew Thos & John Davidson doing sundry jobs at the barn