Monday July 26th 1858	A fine day Finished mowing & took in 2 loads of hay Same hands as on Saturday	Cop Rod
Tuesday July 27	Very warm. Hauling in oats brought in the last load of hay	Cop Rod
Wednesday July 28th	A very warm day Finished hauling in the ~~hay~~ oats	Rod Cop
Thursday July 29	The men commenced harrowing they dry
Friday July 30	The men stirring A considerable fall of rain
Saturday July 31st	A pleasant day Continued ploughing The Fallon in garden
Monday Aug. 2	A cloudy day. a great deal of rain since Saturday Emanuel went to the Meadows	Kelly Absent
Tuesday Aug. 3	A dull day heavy rain in the evening Ploughing clover ground
Wednesday Aug. 4th	A fine day Emanuel & Kelly continued ploughing rye grounds
Thursday Aug 5th	A fine day Continued as above. The Rodky & Fallon cleaning plough	The Rodky
Friday Aug 6	Continued ploughing Same hands as on yesterday	The Rodky
Saturday Aug. 7th	Very warm Continued ploughing as above	The Rodky

Monday August 9 1858	Continued ploughing clover. The Fallon & Rodky attending ploughs	Rodky
Tuesday August 10	Finished clover ground & commenced sowing White — Sow 13 pigs 8 alive 5	Rod Rofe
Wednesday Aug 11	Very warm Ploughed the balance of rye ground
Thursday Aug 12th	Very warm Commenced hauling manure Superintended spreading	9 loads manure Cop
Friday Aug 13th	A warm day continued hauling manure 10 loads	Cop
Saturday Aug. 14	A fine day Continued hauling manure as above 11 loads spotted sow 7 pigs	Cop
Monday Aug. 16	A very warm day continued hauling manure as above 10 loads	Cop
Tuesday Aug 17	A warm day Continued hauling manure as above 11 loads	Cop
Wednesday Aug 18	A warm day until dinner time when it rained heavily. The wheat & oats after dinner 6 loads manure	Cop
Thursday Aug 19	A pleasant day Emanuel ploughed before dinner & hauled manure after dinner 5 loads	Cop ½
Friday Aug. 20	A fine day Continued hauling manure finished the yard & commenced the chips 9 loads manure 2 chips
Saturday Aug. 21	A fine day finished hauling manure & hauled some stones 10 loads chips	