Monday April 18 1859	A clear day Emanuel & Samb. harrowing corn ground. Reuben at Sundries	Ben ½ day
Tuesday April 19	A clear day Men as above harrowing corn ground	Colt a colt last night a horse & Sorrel
Wednesday April 20th	Rather cloudy & cold. Ridging & cultivating corn ground
Thursday April 21	A cool day with some rains Ridging & ~~Cultivating~~
Friday April 22	A very wet day Nothing of importance done
Saturday April 23	A very wet cold blowing day Hands at Sundry jobs
Monday April 25	Being Easter Monday Nothing was done
Tuesday April 26	A dull day - Cultivating & ridging corn ground
Wednesday April 27	A wet day. Made fence &c A very wet day
Thursday April 28	Cleared off Hands fencing
Friday April 29	A fine day Some frost last night Hands continued at fence
Saturday April 30	A fine day Planted the last of the potatoes & fence

Monday May 2nd	A fair day Emanuel ridging & Reuben cultivating for corn
Tuesday May 3rd	A fine day; Continued preparing to plant corn &c
Wednesday May 4th	Very warm Commenced planting corn with my own hands assisted by Reaves	Reaves
Thursday May 5th	Warm & dry All hands as above planting corn in the orchard field	Reaves Cop
Friday May 6th	Warm & dry Finished planting corn in the orchard field	(Reaves 1½ days) in all Sarah Cop
Saturday May 7	Very warm. Emanuel working corn Samb Reuben ridging	Hired
Monday May 9th	Very warm & dry Finished planting corn in the wheat field
Tuesday May 10	Cloudy with rain in the afternoon Men taking out middles &c Quite cool
Wednesday May 11	A damp day with some rain Men hauled stones off clover ground &c
Thursday May 12	Cleared off Men hauling old rails &c &c Rather cool
Friday May 13	A warm clear day Men engaged as on yesterday
Saturday May 14	Men at sundry jobs; Some rain in the morning Colworthy & I went to the barrens for rail Bot. 300 rails, 4½ per hundred from Jonathan Owings	