Thursday July 9 1863 — A clear day commenced grain about 9 A.M. R.D. Cos. F. left — R D & F. left Cos

Friday July 10th — very warm continued on harvest at on yesterday — R D F. L Cos

Saturday July 11 — A sultry day all hands in the harvest field

Monday July 13 — A dull day nothing done in consequence of rain

Tuesday July 14 — A cloudy day cut some grain after dinner

Wednesday July 15 — A dull sultry day some rain about 5 o clock at the grain until the rain fell

Thursday July 16 — A gloomy day with some rain All hands in the harvest field

Friday July 17th — A wet day Little of importance done

Saturday July 18th — Cleared off. All hands at the grain cradled all day

Monday July 20th — A fine day all hands hauling in grain

Tuesday July 21st — A fine day All hands hauling in grains

Wednesday July 22d — All hands hauling in &c &c

Thursday July 23 — Thrashing rakings &c & warm weather

Friday July 24 1863 — Thrashing wheat &c & preparing for hay

Saturday July 25 — Mowing & cutting hay with reaper &c

Monday July 27th — ~~Hauled~~ Wet weather Cut remainder of hay

Tuesday July 28th — All hands hauling hay &c Got in of timothy 10 loads

Wednesday July 29 — Ploughed &c & got in balance of hay from behind & hand & over the creek — 4 loads timothy

Thursday July 30th — A good deal of rain in the morning ploughed & cut oats after dinner

Friday July 31 — A fine day finished cutting oats Fall ploughed

August Saturday 1st — Clotworthy ploughed Isaac absent at battlefield

Monday Aug. 3 — Isaac absent at a funeral C. ploughed &c

Tuesday Aug. 4th — Some rain in the afternoon raked & got in ½ load oats

Wednesday Aug. 5th — A warm day Tabing in oats &c

Thursday Aug. 6th — Went to church before dinner Hauling last of the oats in the afternoon