Tuesday March 22 1864	A cold disagreable day hauled manure into garden cleaned up oats for seed
Wednesday March 23	Some snow last night hauled 3 loads wood &c
Thursday March 24	A cool day hauled wood & ploughed in the afternoon	7 days for 1 plough
Friday March 25	A dull rain, snow & rain in the afternoon ploughed 1½ day	8 days for 1 plough
Saturday March 26	A wet day. nothing of importance done
Monday March 28	Rainy Early Monday Nothing was done
March Tuesday 29	Filling lime kiln Ds. Kafer. J Eckert & Zimmler
Wednesday March 30	A wet day & heavy snow Not much done
Thursday March 31	A considerable fall of snow last night & yesterday hands fencing &c
Friday April 1	Filling Kiln, Boby Arthur afterday
Saturday Apr. 2	A very wet & snowy day nothing of importance done
Monday April 4	Resumed filling lime kiln & finished	Left fire in lime kiln
Tuesday April 5	A very wet & unpleasant day Sundry jobs done
Wednesday April 6 1864	Cleaned up. Hands at Sundry jobs
Thursday April 7th	A fine day; thrashed last of the wheat & commenced sawing wood
Friday April 8th	A mild pleasant day. Sawing wood &c	Wm Gregg left at dinner time
Saturday April 9th to April 16	Weather very uncertain & wet made fence picked stones & did Sundry jobs
Monday April 18th	~~Went to Baltimore & returned~~ P. C. picking stones
Tuesday April 19	Went to Baltimore & returned April 23rd. Picking stones hauling lime &c &c
Saturday April 23th	Sowing oats men in garden &c,
Monday Apr. 25	Heavy rain split wood & did Sundry jobs
Tuesday Apr. 26	Went to McKinstrys for bran; picked stones
Wednesday Apr. 27	Sowing oats picking stones &c
Thursday April 28	A cool blowing day. finished sowing oats spread lime &c
Friday Apr. 29th	A beautiful day hauling out lime

D. Pfautzer 3 days