SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1918

President Wilson has sailed on his Peace mission. May he and his party accomplish their object and return in safety home. He is the greatest man in the world today and future historians will so acclaim him.

The News congratulates the county on the shortness of the court terms in recent years. There is yet room for improvement. Many petty cases should be settled before a magistrate or by the parties to the suit compromising their differences.

The people of Baltimore City have an opportunity now to show how much they really want the trade of the Eastern Shore. A bridge across the Chesapeake would unite the city and afraid of annexation because with the bridge the Shore would soon annex Baltimore. Its practical and one of the improvements that is sure to be built sooner or later.

BRIDGE THE BAY

Proposition Declared Feasible By Chairman Zouck—Links The Two Shores—Structure Would Only Be Nine Miles Long—Executive Appoints Committee To Make An Investigation—Plan Is To Build A Bridge From Bay Shore To Near Tolchester, In Kent County.

The News some years ago urged the building of a bridge across the bay and it is with pleasure we note the Governor has become interested.

Recently he conferred with Frank Zouck, chairman of the State Roads Commission, and who is very favorably impressed with the bridge idea. In a letter he outlined a plan he had conceived and which if adopted would not only connect the two shores, but the terminii suggested would meet the state roads on either side and connect up the only missing ling in the state system.

A bridge could be built from Bay Shore, which is 8 miles from the new city limits, and can be reached by a reasonably good road as well as being the terminus of a fast electric line (there also being a steam railroad only several miles away) to the Kent county shore at a point about three miles south of Tolchester.

The bridge would be approximately nine miles long. We have two locations in view, one being 8.8 miles long and the other 9½ miles. This bridge could be built of a double-deck type, carrying a steam road and an electric road underneath and trucks, automobiles and other vehicles on top. It would have two draws, one on the west side for sailing vessels and the other on the eastern side, near the Kent county shore, where the channel is 50 feet deep. The average depth of water we would have to contend with in building this bridge would be only 15 feet. Eight and one-half miles would have an average depth of 14 feet and one-half mile would have an average depth of 50 feet.

This bridge would connect the entire Eastern Shore with Baltimore city and make it closer to the city than is the Western Shore.

If this bridge is built Kent county will be just 16 miles from the new city limits, or about the distance that Reistertown is from the present city limits.

Chestertown would be 32 miles, against 28 miles to Annapolis and 40 miles to Washington.

Centreville would be 47 miles, against 48 miles to Frederick.

Easton would be 68 miles and Denton 64 miles, against 74 miles to Hagerstown.

Salisbury, the largest city in the Eastern Shore would be 117 miles, against 140 miles to Cumberland, the metropolis of the Western Shore.

Ocean City, the easternmost city, would be 150 miles, against 195 miles to Oakland, the westernmost city.

This bridge should remove all possibilities of the trade of the Eastern Shore of Maryland and some of the State of Delaware going to Philadelphia instead of coming to Baltimore, For instance, Dover, the capital of Delaware, would be only 65 miles from Baltimore, against 75 miles to Philadelphia, and the greater part of Delaware would be closer to Baltimore than to Philadelphia.

The cost is put at less than $10,000,000.

HELP! HELP! HELP!

Christmas time has again been selected for the great American Red Cross Membership Drive. It is the bringing together the spirit of the Red Cross and the spirit of Christmas both typical of mercy, sacrifice and cheer.

It is a campaign for membership, not of money, the chief aim to enroll one dollar annual memberships.

Only memberships accepted after September 1, 1918, will be considered as 1919.

Memberships are counted as part of the Chapter Red Cross Christmas Roll Call Enrollment.

There is greater necessity than ever before in supporting the Red Cross. You know what your dollar has done! You know what your dollar will do.

Dates for meetings in the county will be given in next issue.

WILL OBSERVE BRITAIN'S DAY

Celebration To Take Place This Saturday Afternoon In Chestertown Lyceum Theatre.

In furtherance of a plea originated by Governor Harrington, Dr. Edward J. Clarke, Supt. of Public Education in Kent county, has been requetsed by the State's Chief Executive to accept the chairmanship of a committee to arrange for appropriate celebration of Britain's Day, on Saturday next, Dec. 7.

Dr. Clarke has appointed the following committee to cooperate with him in making the day a successful one: Judge Jas. A. Pearce, F. G. Usilton, Allan A. Harris, L. Bates Russell, Wm. G. Smyth, W. B. Copper, Senator W. W. Beck, A. Parks Rasin, W. I. Jarvis, Howard Turner, E. Thomas Massey, E. R. Pennington, Dr. E. A. Scott, J. P. Ahern, H. S. Jewell, Merrick Clements, G. Elsworth Leary, H. C. Willis, B. F. Rash, R. Harrison Collins, A. H. Covey, S. Scott Beck, Mesdames W. W. Hubbard, Jane Robinson, W. O. Selby, Harry Williams, G. C. Roseberry, Bayard Crew, Eva B. Sykes, Harry C. Willis, and Misses Adelaide Kratzer, May Griffith and Emma Shafer.

The meeting will take place, as stated above, in the Lyceum Theatre on Saturday next, at 3.30 p. m.

The chairman earnestly requests the committee to do everything in its power to advertise the occasion, as the time is very short to get word to the people.

Effort is now being made to secure a prominent speaker for the day—some one closely connected with a branch of the service and the public may look to be well entertained. A feature of the celebration will be a grand chorus of school children who under the direction of Miss Fannie Stuart Principal of the Elementary Public School at Chestertown, will sing the national airs. Those who have not heard these children will do well to embrace this opportunity.

Let every body come out and do honor to our brave ally, England, who on land and sea, stood between us and our autocratic enemy until democracy's forces in the New World could be marshalled to save the day fot freedom and justice.

EDWARD J. CLARKE, Chairman.

Rev. Edmund Burke, D. D., of Cecilton, will be the speaker on this occasion. He is well and favorably known here having made a fine reputation in the Liberty Loan campaigns as a splendid speaker. It will be a great treat to hear him on this date.

KENNEDYVILLE

Miss Bessie Jewell, of Wilmington, spent the week-end home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jewell.

Merry Makers met at the home of Miss Helen Baxter Tuesday evening.

Privates Philip Myers and Richard Groves spent Thanksgiving Day with their parents.

Mrs. Willie Redmile is visiting in Baltimore.

Daniel Hill and son spent Thursday with Mrs. Hill who is sick in Hahnemann Hospital.

Miss Hannah Scotten is sick with the "flu."

There have been and still will be many movings to take place in this little village. It really looks as if some one has "upset the fruit basket." G. R. Rasin has bought the pretty little home of Jack Hessner and W. T. Jones has already moved there. Harry Stanley has moved to Mrs. G. W. Roeder home. Miss Lulu Van Dyke has bought the Warren property from Richard Haggerty and expects to occupy it in a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn, of Locust Grove, will move to the house formerly occupied by Miss Van Dyke. Henry Boggs will live in the Manse. Paul Boggs has moved in the corner house owned by Mrs. Shafer.

Mrs. Harry Walls moves to Mr. Seney's house.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hessner have moved in with Mr. Hessner's mother.

LeRoy McCauley has moved from the Warren house out in the suburbs and will make his future home in the Capt. Hill property This property was formerly owned by W. T. Lane.

Mr. Duyer moves from the Seney house to the house vacated by Lou Walls. We understand Louis Walls goes to Locust Grove.

Can any town or village beat this in Kent?

GALENA

The "flu" has struck us with a vengeance.

Mrs. John Culley, died at her home near town, early Monday morning of pneumonia brought on by influenza, pneumonia brought on by influenza, aged 28. The family, who are all ill have the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

Among those on the sick list this week are Edith, Miriam and Margaret White, Elizabeth and Frances Ruth, Helen Bolton, Samuel Caldwell and two daughters, Mary and Marian, Mrs. James Caldwell, Martha, Anna and Edward Harry S. Dempsey, Mr. Culley and family, Medford Ford, Miss Abbie Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Cochran, Jed Welch, Mrs. Jos. Boyd, Emory Wood, Walter Hadley, Holt Woodall, Misses Molly and Blanche Dixon, Mrs. Joseph Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce and little son, Ralph, Henry, Charles and Mattie Clark and Mr. O'Neil and family.

Dr. and Mrs. George R. Jones are receiving the congratulations of their many friends on the birth of a splendid little girl.

The wise old stork has presented a nice little baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fogwell and another nice little girl to Private Olie Dixon and wife.

Little Anna Mary Beaston while playing at school last week received a cut on her forehead. Dr. Jones dressed the wound and took the little girl home. On the same day Chas. O'Neil had an accident while out gunning. While he was jumping a fence the top rail broke causing him to fall with considerable force in a ditch. In doing so he drove a large sliver from the rail into his arm where it became deeply imbedded under some leaders. Dr. Jones took it out and dressed the wound, having both patients at his office at the same time. Both are doing nicely.
