Monday March 20 1865 — Remarkably fine weather commenced ploughing for oats Sowed some cloverseed

Tuesday March 21 — A fine day Rained after supper Continued ploughing for oats

Wednesday March 22 to Friday March 24 — Cold March wind very heavy rain last night. hauled wood &c & ploughed up day 2 ploughs on Friday

I went to Washington Annapolis

Saturday March 25 — Cold & windy. ploughed for oats

Monday March 27 — A fine day. Ploughed for oats & hauled manure in garden

Tuesday March 28 — ~~Digging in Garden Wagon~~ Ploughed for oats ~~Morning Hilleary Bailey~~

Wednesday March 29 — A fine day Digging in Garden & wagon moving Wm Bailey

Thursday March 30 — very wet little of importance done

Friday March 31st — Continued rain not much done

Saturday April 1st — Making fence &c A fine day, windy

Monday April 3 — A windy day sawing wood &c &c

Tuesday April 4 — Finished ploughing for oats sawed wood

Mr Wright Monday Bro

Returned on Friday 3 Federal troops April 3 – 65
See surrendered to Genl. Grant. " 9 " "
Lincoln shot in Theatre & Mr Lincoln assassinated " 14 " "

Wednesday April 5th — Commenced sowing oats after dinner; sawed wood in the morning. Wm Miller in garden

Thursday April 6 — Weather very changeable sawed wood

Friday April 7th — A dull day, finished sowing oats & harrowing 1st time

Wm Miller came at 9 o'clock

Saturday April 8th to April 17 — Some part very clear & rather cool Continued harrowing oats & sowing clover seed

A great deal of wet weather last week Little of importance done. Monday 17th Tuesday Monday, Nothing done

Tuesday April 18th — A dull day with ~~some~~ rain Clear in the afternoon prepared for planting potatoes &c Wm Miller in garden

Wednesday April 19 — A fine day. Planted some potatoes &c &c

Thursday April 20 — Planted potatoes but well prevented by rain

Friday April 21 — A wet gloomy day Nothing of importance done

Saturday April 22 — A dull day in the morning Clear in the afternoon

Monday April 24 — A clear blowing day planted potatoes & began to cultivate for corn

Tuesday April 25th — I went to Baltimore planted corn in Barley field

Maggie Arthur born April 18