Wednesday Nov 11th 1868	Some frost weather favourable commenced ploughing in the Elm tree field
Thursday Nov 12	Continued ploughing in Elm tree field
Friday Nov 13	Continued ploughing as above Weather favourable
Saturday Nov 14th	Clear & pleasant Continued ploughing corn ground	Wm. Johnston commences $11 per month to April
Monday Nov 16	A mild day. Continued ploughing
Tuesday Nov 17	A cloudy day Rain after dinner Ploughing
Wednesday Nov 18th	A heavy rain last night & Hauled wood
Thursday Nov 19	Clear & warm. Ploughing corn ground & cutting timber wood	J Eckert
Friday Nov 20th	Commenced raining & turned into snow & continued all day Ploughed for a short time in the morning
Saturday Nov 21	A cloudy day. Little done in consequence of the snow
Monday Nov 23	A clear day All hands threshing wheat	75 cts J Eckert
Tuesday Nov 24th	Cleaning up wheat J Eckert in woods	J Eckert

Wednesday Nov 25 1868	A dull day with some appearance of rain Took wheat to the mill	59 bush wheat
Thursday Nov 26	Thanksgiving day Little done	J. Eckert in woods
Friday Nov 27	A fine day. Eckert & William in woods Bob ploughed &c	J Eckert in woods Bob plows
Nov 28 Saturday	Bob ploughed all day & finished Elm tree field
Monday Nov 30th	A mild day Killed a Cows & did Sundry jobs	Cow Daisy weighed 564 lbs
Tuesday Dec. 1st	Rather cold preparing for butchering &c
Wednesday Dec. 2nd	Cold. All hands killing hogs; killed 13 hogs weighing	2184 lbs average 168
Thursday Dec 3rd	Clear & cool All hands cutting up & salting pork &c
Friday Dec 4	A dull cloudy day with snow after dinner Bob ploughed &
Saturday Dec 5th	A considerable fall of snow last night Nothing of importance
Monday Dec 7th	A heavy fall of snow with rain Nothing of importance done
Tuesday Dec 8th	A blowing cold day Bob at Sarbrough's sale	Bob at sale
Wednesday Dec 9th	Little of importance done Bob looking for a place	Bob at sale 3/4