Monday May 3 1869	very tired. Hauling rock & stone for milk house	Emul
Tuesday May 4	Clear & windy Opening a drain from milk house & hauling lime for mortar	Emanl
	Carpenters began spring house
Wednesday May 5th	My own hands preparing for masons at spring house	2 carpenters at spring house 3 days each = 12 days
		2 Carpenters 2.
Thursday May 6	All hands at spring house masons began to build	D. Rodkey 1, Robt Rodkey 1, Lot Myerbell 1, Ben Heagle 1, J. Carpenter ½, 9 Hypnellen ¾
Friday May 7th	A wet day Little of the importance done
Saturday May 8th	A fine day All hands at the spring house	Ben Heagle 1, Dan Rodkey 1, Ls Copenh. 1, Lot Myerbell 2, 9 Hypnellen 1
Monday May 10th	A fine day; all hands at the milk house	Ben. Heagle 1, Dan Rodkey 1, Neslog Rodkey 1, Lot Myerbell 1, Ls. Copenhaver 1, 9. Hypnellen 1, 2. Carpenters
Tuesday May 11	A clear warm day All hands about the milk house	2 carpenters
Wednesday May 12	Clear & warm Hauled load lime stone	10 load lime stone
Thursday May 13	Some rain before dinner & in the evening began & went in town working at the Church	2 loads lime stone this week
Friday May 14	Hauled lime stone & stones from clover field
Saturday May 15	Growing men picking & hauling stones & lime stone
Monday May 17 1869	Hauled lime stone weather fine & growing	Carpenters 3 Heagles each ¾ day 2¼ days
Tuesday May 18	Men at Sunday jobs on the farm	3 Heagles each 1 day = 3 days
Wednesday May 19	Fine weather Some rain in the evening men at Sunday jobs	3 carpenters each 1 = 3 day
Thursday May 20	The men hauling rails & stones off clover field
Friday May 21	A damp day with rain about 10 P.M. Isac attended Instruct. Fred R. harrowed potatoes
Saturday May 22	A wet morning Men at Sunday jobs
Monday May 24	A warm day replanting corn in the lime field	Emanl
Tuesday May 25	Quite warm All hands planting corn as above	Emanl
Wednesday May 26	Harrowing & replanting corn Some rain	Emanl ¾
Thursday May 27	Harrowing & replanting corn Very Cloudy	Emanl
Friday May 28	Finished harrowing & corn & made fence	Emanl 1
Saturday May 29	Cloudy with some rain very warm Made fence & did Sunday jobs	