This Town is improving daily. Hugh Kirk is dead
I intended if I had got an opportunity to have sent you some Belfast Papers but there being no Vessels leaving this port & I being obliged to send this via ~~Liverpool~~ Newyork. I could not, rightly send them, be so good as give my mother, & my kind compliments to Mrs B & the Family

Dear Sir

Yours truly
Walter MacFarlane

P.S. I would have sent this sooner but waited for Mr Birnie to write to you Belfast 13th Decr 1810

As the new year will be commenced before you receive this I wish all the happy returns of the season

My Dear Patty

It grieves me to see you have so soon forgotten your friend

Sam Bryson

Belfast 20th Novr 1810

Dr Cloney If I had not got this opportunity I wd have acknowledged yours in an entire letter — I feel very much gratified in understanding you are so well pleased I can not find out a carpenter such as you describe Any such could make a great deal more here as to the Gardener I think he may be pr. I will however make enquiry for both. The bond you spoke of is not yet found out I think it will — I will write you a longer letter soon Anne joins me in kindest regards to Betsy & all yr children I by you will remember me to yr brother as his assured friend &c &c — Shou you wish to let me know occasionally how you are going on as nothing wd give me more satisfaction than knowing of yr own & family's welfare I am

Truly yours J Birnie
