New Lyceum Theatre
Chestertown, Md.

Crucial marital situations, ranging from gay to grave, are presented in "Let's Try Again," the featured attraction scheduled for the New Lyceum Theatre Monday and Tuesday and starring Clive Brook and Diana Wynward. It is a daring handling of the problems that confront every husband and wive, and principally the problem of prolonging the romantic fervour of the honeymoon through the long years of marriage.

"Let's Try Again" has been adapted for screen from the Broadway success, "Sour Grapes," and, besides the two stars, Helen Vinson, Arthur Hoyt and Irene Hervey are to be seen. The role is ideally suited to the suave talents of Clive Brook, whose followers are legion, and Miss Wynward is equally as well suited in this film as she was in her smash hit, "Cavalcade."

For Wednesday and Thursday the New Lyceum Theatre will offer Richard Dix in his latest starring film—a picture that has not yet been projected on Broadway, and therefore an advance treat for the local fans.

Titled "The Greatest Gamble" the latest film featuring Richard Dix is a startling story of how a husband and father is carried back from a depraved life to defend his daughter when he thinks she is threatened by the marriage of his divorced wife with a scavegoat.

The cast includes, besides Dix. Dorothy Wilson, Bruce Cabot and Erwin O'Brien-Moore.

For Friday and Saturday there are two features listed for a showing at the New Lyceum. "Speed Wings" brings the redoubtable Tim McCoy in a thrilling yarn of the air; and "Let's Talk It Over," with Chester Morris and Mae Clarke, is a gay comedy mixed with delightful song.

Love, and be strong; for he who dies hath but these wings to rise from earth to heaven. — Michael Angelo.

Betterton Casino Theatre
Betterton, Maryland

Clarke Gable and Myrna Loy are to be seen at the Betterton Casino Theatre tonight in what is claimed to be one of the best dramas of the season, "Men In White." This film, taken from the prize-winning stage play of the same name, is a story of the hospital, the tragedy, comedy and romance which lurks within every case brought into the operating room. The film will hold the interest of all, and the performances of the two stars are something to rave about.

"Manhattan Melodrama" is the featured attraction scheduled for the Betterton Casino for Monday and Tuesday evenings. This film, the story of kidnapping, crime and its suppression, has been hailed as a true view of the criminal state of our land today, the critics have acclaimed it and an enjoyable evening should be awaiting those who see it.

Edgar Rice Burroughs wrote the famous "Tarzan" stories, but it remained for Johnny Weismuller to bring the ape-man to life on the screen. Now, Weismuller appears once again in the role of Tarzan, this time in "Tarzan and His Mate," Maureen O'Sullivan plays the role of "Mrs." to the jungle king. There are exciting and thrilling moments in this yarn, there are scenes of the jungle beasts which will please you, and the strange romance between this ape-man and the Englishwoman provides an unusual romantic touch. This attraction will be at the Getterton Casino Theatre next Friday and Saturday.

TURKEY SUPPER IN JULY

"Red Acres" the farm of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Williams, Worton, was the scene of a turkey supper in July given by the ladies of Union M. E. Church Wednesday evening. They fed 295 part of whom had to finish in the farm home because of the storm. It was well served and plenty for everyone. Mrs. Grace Bigelow, of Swan Creek, won the live turkey.

Here is the way a sports writer views the fishing at Rock Hall:

'Chumming for rock with live shrimp is a very delightful way of angling. It ofttimes brings results, and when the fish are striking there's fun aplenty. But—

If you're going to chum for stripers BE SURE to take a RULER along. Otherwise besides being productive of fish and sport the trip may prove very expensive.

The legal size of rock is eleven inches. Apparently many fishermen are not acquainted with the fact. It has cost some of them $26.45, which in addition to the cost of the shrimp, the cost of hiring a boat, or paying for gasoline if one fishing in the high-bracket level.

Swan Point, over on the Chester river, is a favorite spot for chumming for stripers. Unfortunately, too, it is a favorite hangout place for undersized rock. Some larger ones are taken there. too, but unless one observes discretion and the law one may very easily get into trouble, and trouble in this case may mean a rather stiff fine.

Moved by the reports of many boats catching undersized fish, the State Conservation Department is making a drive to end the practice, and in the eyes of the law ignorance of the statutes is hardly an adequate excuse."
