Union Church Services

The Union Service last Sunday evening was held in the Episcopal Church on account of inclement weather. People came, however, in spite of the rain thus manifesting the interest felt in these services.

Rev. W. H. Litsinger, pastor of Christ Methodist Protestant Church, had charge and preached. His subject was The Law of God on Which He Made Two Observations: first, The law given by God to Moses was a revelation of life principles. It did not create conditions; what it states is not so because God said it but He said it because it is so, made by Him thus at the beginning and revealed by what He said. People speak about changing law. We hear for example, much about repealing the Sabbath law, just as well talk of repealing creation. Men do not make these laws; they may be broken by them. It is therefore the part of wisdom to attend to what God has said and to apply His laws to our life.

The second observation made was that it is God's grace that this revelation is given. Some laws we would not know if He did not reveal them. God does fully. Even the terrors which accompanied the giving of law expressed His kindness for thereby He would impress upon men their importance. Considering which we should be grateful for God's grace in all this and should glandly come to Him in renewed love and devotion.

Rev. Frank White, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church. will be the preacher next Sunday evening when the service will be held out of doors unless the weather should necessitates holding it again in the Episcopal Church which is kindly at the disposal of the service under such conditions.
