PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST FOR 1934

The American Farm Bureau Federation announces a nation-wide contest for Farm Bureau Women representing its various member States. The contest will be conducted under rules and regulations which may be obtained from Mrs. Harry T. Williams, Worton. "The Farm Woman and the New Deal." Any farm woman who is a member of a Farm Bureau family may compete in such a contest in her own State.

CROWDS ATTENDING COMMUNITY SERVICE

The people continue to enjoy the Sunday evening services. The selections by the band are particularly pleasing. The congregation is uniting whole-heartedly in the singing. It was a beautiful evening last Sunday. The sermon by Rev. Frank White, was on the theme "Glorying in the Cross." Three reasons were presented for our boasting: The purpose of the Cross; to reconcile the sinner with his Maker; to rebuild a ruined world; to reunite the broken family of god. The plan of the Cross, in conformity with the natural law in the spiritual world. The power of the Cross, To save from sin; to inspire to service and sustain therein; to answer the prayer of the Christ that "we may all be one in Him." As Jesus was and is the example of Love, so the Cross continues to be the symbol of Love.

The service next Sunday will be in charge of Rev. White. The service on the 19th in charge of Rev. C. L. Atwater, and the closing service on the 26th in charge of Rev. W. H. Litsinger.

If the weather is unfavorable, the service is held in the Protestant Episcopal Church.
