Dear Sir,

Norfolk Aug.t 9th 1810

I some time since rec.d your much esteemed favor announcing the arrival of yourself & family in Balt.e on which event I congratulate you, & I sincerely hope you will be amply compensated by your visit to the seed world for the toil & care of the undertaking. I know of no person in this County, more capable & I may add none more willing, to give you friendly advice ~~than~~ than our mutual friend D. White as to your future occupation - you seem bent on an agricultural life which I consider myself but calculated to ensure a manly happiness - to the North this may do very well, but southerly
