must be cheap, it is the lowest price they are allowed to take being a Consignment I went to A Muller the Auctr to try the price of his, he referd me to Messrs Wingmans I therefore found they were the same parcel — the Day I saw them they had a Letter from a Gentleman on the Eastern Shore to know what they would take for the whole of them if he takes them I must decide previous to receiving your Answer I think it likely I may take them, but would wish to hear from you if possible by very first conveyance — they appear very Healthy are about 3 Months landed & none of them dies since, there is one Ram pretty much like the Prince of Peace price $80. his Horns exactly the same & the Carcass very little (if any) less — At present I am not able to say anything about returning but should nothing be likely to turn up soon I will — There is a Vessel arrive at New York from Belfast with Passengers I have very anxious for a day or two expecting Letters but have received none yet, As Mr Henderson is waiting I have Time to say no more — remember me Affectionately to all your good Family Not forgetting Fanny — I believe me to be

Yours very Sincerely
