Annapolis March the 8, 1812

Dear Father

I am glad to tell you that there is a person named Curran come to teach counting and wrighting at the Collidge we have got 42 buoys at the collidge he says that I cypher very well and write pretty well I began in Addition and I am now in compound substraction in Saten Ovid and Caesars Comitaries. and in French Telemachus I would have wrote to you by Mr Reid only my arm was so sore that I couldnot I hope my Mother and all the family are very well you may tell Hester that I think she ~~that~~ ought to say that I am negligent for she has wrote home once and I have not give my love to Elen and tell her if she wishes tole good sholar that she must mind her book more I am very glad to hear that Ann an Upton are lerning fast. I hope Jack will get better of his cold and toothache give my love to him I would have written to you before only I did not wish you to pay postage As Mr Reid intends going up about the 20 I shall write to you again

39
8
312
220
6240
624
30/18640
40/1228,8
57·18
14·1·18

1·100
4
6·80

2
45

220
8
1760
17
12320
1760
29920
160/4797(6
960
37

72/

17
1/2
2
2