Dear Sir - Belvoir March 26th - 1814

Pompey arrived here last Evening with 23 Sheep. having left one at Mr. Carroll's Manor - which was so Tired that it could not travel - This will not occasion any loss. as I can get - Mr. C's Man who keeps by this every week. to bring it down -

The Sheep look very well and I expect you have made a pretty good bargain on my side - better than I should have done myself - Ned seems well pleased with their coming & will soon begin to murder them -

I acknowledge myself much indebted to you for the trouble you have had in this business - and sorry to find that you were obliged to send Pompey - whose services were so necessary to you at Home - his expenses have been moderate and I have given him a trifle for himself. having performed his duty well - & as much as will carry him Home - I have desired him to go by way of Balt. - that if you are on the road. he may have a chance of giving you this - I am very sorry to hear your Mare fell with you & hurt you - I hope it will not be attended with much pain or confinement. & that we shall have the pleasure of seeing you at Annapolis soon - Mr. Key had not arrived at Annapolis yesterday 3 o'clock - but he is expected every Day - Being here & not able to see Frank before Pompey goes cannot do any thing at present - nor do I believe he is disposed to move as yet - a few Days past he came to
