Dear Sir

I this day Rec^d your esteem^d Letter of Yesterday & certainly feel much obliged by your liberality I never considered myself as having any claim on you - I am glad to find Sally & Rose intend starting next Thursday - Adair has been confined for some days by a swelling under side of his Thigh below the Knee from which (when moved) he suffers much pain & Jane is as bad a Hand as ever was in such a Case, he rested better last Night & Dr Spangler has been endeavouring to put it back & I believe will succeed; we know no cause for the Complaint - I
