SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1934

THE Democratic Primaries in Kent passed off in a most orderly manner. There was no excitement such as our sister county reported and the voters seemed to enjoy the privilege. The vote proves that old Kent is a rock-ribbed Democratic county as there were more than 3,000 who participated in the nomination. The Harmony ticket supporters regret losing that hard-working and loyal Democrat from Millington, Leonard Wilson. At the same time the present clerk. Robert Shallcross, is a strong candidate and his big vote proves it. The ticket named Wednesday will go before the voters with a strong backing and will have the hearty support of the NEWS. We shall present the claims of the party and its candidates in future issues and ask for their election.

TO THE SCHOOL TEACHERS

The County Commissioners have no power either to raise or lower school teachers' salaries. That rests with the State Board of Education. No cut in teachers' salaries could or would be made except by and with the consent of the State Board of Education.

C. Norman Jefferson, of Easton, was defeated for Register of Wills in Talbot.

Queen Anne's Democrats nominated Wm. R. Wilson for Senate and the whole Anti-Roe ticket excepting Dr. Dudley, who was named as candidate for Register of Wills.

The Automobile Club of Maryland local representative of the AAA has opened an office in Easton. The office is located in the building of Edgar T. Warner and Son, 600 Dover Road. Howard H. Moffett, formerly from Chestertown, and now residing in Easton, is the Supervisor of this district and will have charge of the office. Miss Mary E. Kemp will be his assistant. A full supply of maps and touring information of all description will be carried in this office.

Hospital Nears Completion Now

The Kent and Upper Queen Anne County Hospital Association will within two weeks open a hospital in Chestertown to serve both Kent and Queen Anne's County. The hospital building has been constructed on a site adjoining the Washington College Campus.

Its opening is pending the organization of a staff and the purchase of equipment by the Association. Dr. Frank B. Hines, Chestertown physician will be cheif of staff. Dr. F. Allan Holden a prominent Baltimore eye and throat specialist will operate at the hospital, as may Dr. Thomas S. Cullen, professor of gynecology at the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, and Dr. Thomas Chambers, Baltimore Surgeon.

Several registered nurses will serve on the nursing staff and the office of Dr. Ralph G. Beachley, Deputy State health officer will co-operate. The present board of directors is expected to resign and a permanent board will be nominated.

Ritchie Polls A Large Vote Throughout State

Conley Carries Eastern Shore And Two Counties Across The Bay

Radcliffe Sweeps Every Precinct In Maryland

Final returns in the Democratic primary on the Governorship nomination showed that Dr. Charles H. Conley had polled nearly 85,000 votes against Governor Ditchie, giving the fifth-term camp the first concrete evidence on which to gauge the anti-Ritchie sentiment in the State.

With Harford still in doubt, the Frederick physician had carried eleven counties against the Governor, whose popular vote throughout the State was approximately 135,000. The counties in the Conley column were:

Caroline
Dorchester
Kent
St. Mary's
Talbot
Cecil
Frederick
Queen Anne's
Somerset
Worcester
Wicomico

Dr. Conley was one of the first to congratulate the Governor on his victory.

"The battle is over," he said in a telegram to the Governor. "You have won. I congratulate you on your victory."

In reply. the Governor wired the Frederick countian:

"I appreciate most sincerely your generous telegram of congratulation and hope for an early opportunity of seeing you."

While the Governor was certain of 101 votes in the State Convention to 43 for Dr. Conley—with Hartford's five still in doubt—his running mate in the Senatorial primary. George L. Radcliffe won the entire 149 in his contest with William Milnes Maloy.

The Governor, as did Nice on the Republican ticket, carried all six Baltimore district. Nice lost Caroline and Calvert counties to H. Webster Smith. and Charles, Dorchester. Kent, Montgomery, Prince Keorge's and Wicomico to Senator Goldsborough.

With Queen Anne's and Somerset still to report, Nice was sure of 105 votes in his party's convention.

Governor Ritchie carried Baltimore by two and a half to one over Dr. Conley but the popular vote for the entire State was less than two to one in his favor.

In the only other primary contest he has ever had for the Gubernatorial nomination, against Mr. Maloy in 1926, the Governor carried Baltimore by about ten to one. and the entire State by a four-to-one margin. Mr. Maloy. however, did not carry one county in that race.

On the city's total Democratic registration of approximately 212,000, nearly half, or approximately 104,000 turned out at the polls. The Governor received the votes of 74,096.

Nominated By Kent Democrats

Arthur H. Brice, successful candidate for the nomination of Senator on the Democratic ticket, who defeated Dr. H. P. Copeland and won the right to appear on the ticket in November; and Wilbur Ross Hubbard, who, with Roy T. Strong, of Rock Hall, was nominated by Kent County Democrats as that party's candidates for the Maryland House of Delegates.

W. Mason Shehan Wins In Cheif Judgeship Fight

Kent County Rolls Up Over 800 Majority For Judge Keating In Circuit Battle

While Kent rolled up over 800 majority for Judge Keating for Chief Judge in this Circuit it was not sufficient to defeat W. Mason Shehan, of Talbot. Mr. Shehan received 6,969 votes, the total being but 375 more than those cast for his nearest rival, Associate Judge Thos. J. Keating. already a member of the circuit bench.

It was the large pluralities obtained in his home county of Talbot and in Caroline county that gave Mr. Shehan the nomination.

The returns were as follows:

County	Shehan	Keating	Evans
Caroline	1,164	972	291
Cecil	315	612	3,330
Kent	359	1,679	648
Queen Anne's	1,460	2,573	218
Talbot	3,171	758	174
Totals	6,969	6,594	4.661

When the result of the contest became known for a certainty on Thursday more than 2,000 persons gathered about the home of Mr. Shehan in Easton and gave him an ovation. He also received telegrams of congratulations from Judge Keating and Mr. Evans.

The place sought by Mr. Evans is now held by Chief Judge William H. Adkins, who is retiring because of his age.

G.O.P. Polls Less Than 800 Votes

GOLDSBOROUGH CARRIES KENT BY 564 VOTES

The Republican Primary in Kent was a tame affair as compared to the Democrats. The total vote was only 740 and the white leaders put Goldsborough over with ease. The vote was 564 for Goldsborough, 13 for Nice and 163 for Smith. For Senator France got 453, Hill 196 and Miller 31. Adkins ran ahead for Comptroller.

PUBLIC SALE OF PUBLIC SALE OF Garage Equipment

The undersigned, having decided to go out of business, will offer at public sale at their premises on Maple avenue, on Tuesday, Sept. 25, at 1 P. M.

the following articles of garage equipment:

One air compressor, one Wayne hydraulic lift. one Hubbard car washer. one high pressure grease gun. one vacuum cleaner. one paint spray. one stove, one radio. one desk and 3 chairs. three chamois wringers, one emory wheel with wire brush, one three-ton heavy duty Reo truck with lot of equipment, one Studebaker coupe with new set of tires, a lot of used tires and a lot of wrenches. tools. etc.

We are selling our equipment because the Mayor and Town Council of Chestertown have refused to grant us a permit to place our gas tanks where our trade could be served with gasoline without coming into our garage. Many of our former patrons do not buy from us at this time because they cannot get to our tanks with the same ease that they can at other garages where the tanks are on the curb. One of our neighbors has his tanks on the curb and when we asked to be accorded the same rights the Mayor and Town Council refused. We are at a loss to understand why our neighbor can sell from the curb and we must have our tanks inside our garage.
