Dear Sir

York 19 Jany 1816

I enquired this morning at one of our Flour sellers what was the present price, he says he would not give more than $5½ by the Load that he can buy it by the single Bl at $6 — I have no doubt we could sell 10 a 12 Bands at the latter price in a little Time, you can therefore do whatever you think most for your Interest — if you send it let the quality be good & I think a good deal might be sold here — I have got some Feet from Ruffe which I send you —

Yours truly
J Thomson

Try to collect the half Bame next Time you send
