WILL ROGERS BUSTS LOOSE IN "HANDY ANDY"

And these are just a few of Rogers' hilarious antics in his latest and funniest comedy, "Handy Andy"

America's cowboy buffan and desert commentator of the world's news, Will Rogers, will be the featred attraction on the screen of the New Lyceum Theatre next Monday and Tuesday evenings in his latest film, "Handy Andy."

In this hilarious film Will Rogers portrays a druggist who wants to work in peace, but whose wife expertly nags him into selling out and spending his time playing. Going through the entire category of sports, Will Rogers provides laughable situations at every turn as he tries, clumsily, to master golf, tennis, pigeon fancying, and the Madri Gras at New Orleans.

With such a plot, where the Rogers humor has such a free rein, there is abundant room for good, hilarious fun, and that's what the fans are in for when they see "Handy Andy."

For Wednesday and Thursday "Down To Their Last Yacht" will be featured screen attraction at the New Lyceum Theatre. Mary Boland, Polly Moran, Ned Sparks and Sidney Fox head the cost of this amusing film which is a roaring satire on the south sea islands.

The story deals with the experiences of a group of ex-millionaires who are stranded on an island in the Pacific. Here life assumes the proportions of being just one round of music, dancing and comedy after another, resulting in joy and fun for the watchers.

Produced by the same company and director which gave "Flying Down to Rio" to the screen, "Down To Their Last Yacht" is a comedy with music, beautiful girls and a cast of comedians who will provide you with a joyous evening of frivolity.

For Friday and Saturday Slim Summedville and Zasu Pitts will head the list of screen entertainment at the New Lyceum in their latest film. "Their Big Moment." This comic pair have appeared together on the screen many times and always audiences have raved over their work. In this film revivews give an indication that they have even exceeded the high level of hilarious fun which they have afforded in the past.
