York 17th March 1815

My Dear Sir

Your esteemed Letter of 15th is this moment Recd – it gives me much pleasure to hear that you have succeeded so far in your Turnpike Road as to be able to commence, Providence I trust will enable you to complete it, & when that is done, your property there no doubt will be much more valuable in consequence. – I happened to mention the circumstance of the Bill to Friend Cathcart, & I assure you he takes a good deal of Interest in any concern of yours, where he can serve you, he said he would write to Mr Neil of Phila who had wanted to remit some money to County Antrim which his father had left to some of his Relations, but had been prevented by the War, Mr C. is Executor along with the
