Counsellor Orr & Mary Crombie had been married about a year ago, that she was likely to have a young one in about 6 weeks & that he was so ill, that he was not expected to live to see it — Mr McKean had some Money for us in his Hands, but they were wearied applying to him for it, & Mrs Brown wishd Nancy to send out a power of Attorney to her Aunt Crawford to receive it in future, which she has already done & I forwarded the whole to. Mr White yesterday under Cover to Jas Little as I see there is a Vessel to sail soon for Liverpool — Should Mr Gibbons Letter contain any thing of consequence I will advise you on Friday, provided it comes tomorrow, Saturday is the next post day from Philadelphia but would be too late to write you — If your Letter mention any Changes of those we know, please let us know — We are well, & heard yesterday for last Time this Season, Warner did not call, on his return so we sent the Letters by Ekes — In haste

Yours Affectionately
Jonathan & Thomson
