THE Republicans in the State are having a family quarrel. An effort is being made by Mr. Nice to unseat Galen Tait as chairman of the State Central Committee and it looks as if he will be successful. Mr. Tait calls Old Man Weller an "old recluse" and says he would "rather be a lion stabbed in the back than a tame cat frisking about its master's heels." Go to it, gentlemen.

IT IS with sincere regret we note the retirement of Charles Walls from the editorship and management of the Centreville Observer. He will become publicity agent for the Phillips Packing Co., Cambridge. Mr. Walls will be missed by all the newspaper fraternity. He has ability as a newspaper man and made friends of everyone in our association. May he be equally successful in his new position.

JUDGE W. CALVIN CHESTNUT in a decision in Baltimore Thursday declared the Frazier-Lemke Act unconstitutional. It is one of the most shocking pieces of legislation passed at the last session of Congress and but few are surprised at the Court's decision. It provides. among other things, for a five year moratorium on farm mortgages. This decicion is the first in the U. S.

IT LOOKS as if the Lindbergh kidnapping case is about to be settled. A Germnn fugitive was seized after passing $10 note part of futile ransom. It was identined as recipient of $50,000 paid for baby's return. His name is Gruno Richard Hauftmann, 35, an alien and carpenter, who came to this country from Germany in 1923 as a stowawap while on paroie from a German prison. $13,750 of flyers money found at suspect home. He was employed in a lumber yard near Colonel's Jersey estate. Wife and nephew arrested as accomplices. A wonderful piece of detective work.

THE local Democratic ticket placed at the head of the NEWS column is one of the best ever named in Kent. It is a representative ticket and should receive the support of every Democrat and appeals to those who want good government.

THE candidates on the Republican ticket met in Chestertown Lyceum Thursday and made plans for the campaign.

ONE and all, should commend State Game Warden E. Lee LeCompte for his efforts in the gunners behalf and in his prompt action in declaring the usual rest days prescribed under Maryland law would be nullified this year.

Mr. LeCompte's move guarantees that Marylanders will get their full 30-day season, whereas, had the Maryland rest days been maintained, some sections would have gotten but a few days shooting.

Random Paragraphs

With the tree controvesy at an end, the primary a thing of the past, and the truck war quiet on Water street, there's little to keep tongues wagging hereabouts...Almost everyone is taking a short breather in preparation for the November blowoff.

—o—

We wonder if anyone else got a laugh out of the coincidence at the New Lyceum Theatre last Thursday afternoon. Within, the Republican State Central Committee was in solemn session, to select a successor to Mr. John C. Davis; and, without, an eye-catching sign blazed this title for all to see: "Down To Their Last Yacht."

—o—

L. Bates Russell, Sr., who has been dilly-dallying with motion pictures for some seventeen years, has viewed more than 4,420 flicker dramas in that span of years...and found something enjoyable in all of them.

—o—

Occasionally we get a report from the hinterlands of Kent county which supports our conviction that we have at least a couple of readers. The latest confession, under pressure, comes from George Moffett, up the county at Massey. Whether he likes it or not, Mr. Moffett admits that he reads our chatter...and we are honored.

—o—

To Owen C. Blades we extend congratulations, beforehand, for the manner in which we know he's going to cooperate with Principal Jack Stenger to make Chestertown High School a better place.

—o—

To Charlie Walls, Jr., of the Centreville Observer, we tender congratulations and best wishes upon his succession to the editorship of that estimable sheet. Charlie succeeds his father, and no one knows better than us the tough job it is to follow in the footsteps of a newspapering parent. With this note we might add that there's some doubt as to the future of the Centreville Times, also edited by young Walls. There's a rumor that it will go the way of all flesh, but, until the November election is history, it will continue to function for obvious reasons.

—o—

Along with the congratulations which are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eshman, on the birth of an eight-pound heir last Saturday morning, goes the rumor that Charlie will christen the boy, Albert Ritchie Eshman!

—o—

From all the accounts which have drifted across the Chester River, neighboring Queen Anne's should be flourishing. Each day, the reputed sums spent by the two oppositions mount, until we begin to wonder if such an election isn't one way to beat the depression. The aforementioned rumors explain satisfactorily why the Showboat in these parts is stoppiny at Crumpton and Centreville, and skipping Chestertown.

—o—

It's perfectly all right for some people to talk about bolting the Democratic ranks in the November election, but when you suggest that they should be registered as Republicans they get sore about it... Which just goes to prove that the truth is hard to take.

—o—

To Arnold Van Petten we tender the most beautiful of all the displays at the recently-held Flower Show, for his sterling work with the Chestertown fire-fighting horntooters.

—o—

Now that Dudley Roe's political epitath is about to be written by those "smart young men" of Queen Anne's Record, we venture the thought that ex-Senator-to-be- Roe is probably glad to rid himself of Queen Anne's political load after eleven years of grief...And now he can give his undivided attention to his business, without minding other people's affairs for which he got nothing; and watch from the sidelines as the winners assume his headaches.

Down our way the circus bug has bitten, and the results of the infection have been viewed by the assembled residents of Hynson Rogers' ward. The disease, taking root in the backyard belonging to Alan A. Harris, came to a head on Tuesday last in the form of the "Harris Brother's and Associates" one-ring circus. The cast of this glittering, glamorous gathering of young men and women was made up of the following, in various and sundry roles: Alan Harris, as ringmaster; Katherine Strong, living up to her name as the giant and Amazon of the group; the Sutton brothers, as highbar acrobats; Jane Brooks, as Mae West; Francis Mackey Metcalfe,Carl Felamet, Dick Foley, John A. Derringer as clowns and roustabouts; and James Metcalfe as ticket taker.

A good "take" was registered at the gate and, when all expenses were paid, each performer, in a communistic division of the profits, shared alike in the proceeds. Merchants hereabouts will find this as the reason for any sales increase in such merchandise as ice cream cones, candy bars and chewing gum.

When I see Messrs. Tommy Davis and Jesse Usilton together it always reminds me of King Cole and his twin brother talking over the times when they were very young...And those rotund gentlemen can do a bit of spreading, if you get what I mean.

Letter To The Editor

To the Public:

Last Saturday, the writer by chance came into possession of a paper entitled,

"Tax Payers of Kent County Do You Know You Are Paying for a Well Paid Subsidized Local Press?"

A person of even temperament and no more than ordinary judgment would, on reading this paper, consider it the product of a warped and dwarfed mind. The person from whom the writer obtained the copy that prompted this letter was greatly humiliated when found with two hundred or more copies in his possession. They had been sent to him for distribution among his friends. His self respect did not permit him to distribute these papers even though he was entirely in sympathy with the Democratic Independent ticket. He attempted to return them to the post office through which they were sent to him.

The paper was a heated denunciation of the existing political order in the county and of the local press because it printed information regarding the Democratic Harmony ticket. It was like the cry of an embittered soul who looks upon elective offices as political plums not one of which he had been permitted to pick.

"Some of the facts" given through this back-door campaigning were presented with much sinister implications as to reflect dishonor on some of those involved. To illustrate, the writer will use only one quotation: ". . . . . and do you know the Enterprise Editor was holding a side job as School Commissioner, and worked very harmoniously with the Secretary of that body, and do you know that the Secretary had been working very assiduously for years to close all small schools and have all the scholars hauled for miles and miles in busses to larger schools, and do you know the above commissioner sold autos and trucks, and also school busses, ... "

Any one on reading the above quotation would naturally infer that Mr. L. B. Russell, Sr., the "School Commissioner" referred to has used his position on the Board of Education of Kent County for financial gain. The truth of the matter is Mr. Russell, when he became a member of the school board gave up all of his fire insurance on school buildings in Kent County, refused to do any more jobprinting for the school board, and in all cases where he had any idea that a school bus contractor would be interested in getting prices from his automobile company on a school bus he has refused to vote on the question of the contract price for the bus route. Such matters he left to the Democrat members of the board to decide. He has even refused to accept any part of the one hundred dollars ($100.) allowed each year by law to school board members for expenses. He claims that because of his residence in Chestertown he does not have any expense in going to and from the school board office for meetings of the board. And school board members do not receive any salary. He has assiduously sought in every way to avoid profiting by his position as "School Commissioner."

Furthermore, Mr. Russell has NOT "worked very harmoniously with the Secretary of that body" (the Board of Education) in the closing of schools. He has not only on some occasions opposed the closing of schools, but at one or more times changed his vote when he learned that the majority of school patrons directly involved were opposed to the closing of a school.

Although the political affiliations of Mr. Russell are the opposite of the writer's, he could not lose this opportunity to defend a man who has worked so honestly and so diligently as Mr. Russell has always worked for the public interest.

The writer hopes that someone who is as well acquainted with the WHOLE TRUTH regarding the Democrats so seriously and unfairly reflected on in the paper mentioned above as he is with the truth regarding Mr. Russell will write an article in defense of them.

Very truly yours,
Louis C. Robinson.

THE magnitude of the relief drive in the nation's worst drought catastrophe was understood Saturday when it became apparent that for months the government will be the country's largest buyer and distributor of meat.

Before the program is finished, conservative estimates said, the government will own 2,000,000,000 pounds of processed beef and 150,000,000 pounds of mutton to hand over to needy families.

Officials said that when the program is over and the industry goes back to private hands it will be in better shape and the cattle herds will be vastly improved.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Mary O. Money
vs.
Walter S. Money, Jr.

In the Circuit Court for Kent Co., In Equity, No. 2889.

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree for divorce a vinculo matrimonii.

The Bill states:

1. That on October 30th, 1917, Mary O. Money was married to her husband, Walter S. Money, Jr., with whom she resided in the State of Delaware until the year 1929, then she removed to Kent county and lived with him at Sassafras for a period of about one year. We were sold out of our property and he left me during May, 1931.

2. That. though the conduct of your Oratrix towards her husband, the said Walter S. Money, Jr., has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Walter S. Money, Jr., has, without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted her, and has declared his intention to live with her no longer, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years, and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

3. That your Oratrix and said Defendant, Walter S. Money, Jr., have had two children born to them during said marriage, namely: Walter Clarence Money, age 15, and Mary Ann Money, age 11. That since said desertion and abandonment by the said Walter S. Money, Jr., your Oratrix has clothed her children. They are now living with the parents of Walter S. Money, Jr., at Atlantic City, N. J.

4. Your Oratrix has resided in the State of Maryland ever since the separation and is now a resident of the said State. The said Walter S. Money, Jr., is a resident of the State of New Jersey.

It is thereupon, this 19th day of September, 1034, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county, once in each of four successive weeks before the 15th day of October next, give notice to the said Walter S. Money, Jr., non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 30th day of October next, to show cause, if any he has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

PUBLIC SALE OF Garage Equipment

The undersigned, having decided to go out of business, will offer at public sale at their premises on Maple avenue, on the following articles of garage equipment:

Tuesday, Sept. 25, at 1 P. M.

One air compressor, one Wayne hydraulic lift. one Hubbard car washer. one high pressure grease gun. one vacuum cleaner. one paint spray. one stove, one radio. one desk and 3 chairs. three chamois wringers, one emory wheel with wire brush, one three-ton heavy duty Reo truck with lot of equipment, one Studebaker coupe with new set of tires, a lot of used tires and a lot of wrenches. tools. etc.

We are selling our equipment because the Mayor and Town Council of Chestertown have refused to grant us a permit to place our gas tanks where our trade could be served with gasoline without coming into our garage. Many of our former patrons do not buy from us at this time because they cannot get to our tanks with the same ease that they can at other garages where the tanks are on the curb. One of our neighbors has his tanks on the curb and when we asked to be accorded the same rights the Mayor and Town Council refused. We are at a loss to understand why our neighbor can sell from the curb and we must have our tanks inside our garage.
