6 Dec 1815
Jas. Clabey

leaves 2 $ for Carriage some of the other Brewers have lowerd the price to $5½ here & make it weaker this we dont do nor is there likely to be any occasion as the Quality sells it wherever it goes; it is Strong well flavord & fine —
So soon as you get thro' a few of the Belfast papers will you be so good as forward them, I heard you were to be in B. more a Week or two ago & had intended seeing you then, but a severe Cold disappointed me, I shall likely go down next week. —

We have got down to the House near the Brewry & altho' an old Wooden one we find it much more comfortable than the other —
With kind Love to all your Family —

I remain
My Dear Sir
Yours very Sincerely
Jno Thomson

As this goes in the Trunk I think the post Officers will be depanded for once, I have often taken in Tom Whinnery & never expected to be beat after that