IN THIS ELECTION. so far as the State is concerned, we unhesitatingly stand for Governor Ritchie as the nominee of the Democratic party to succeed himself. The Governor has a record which speaks for itself and says nothing but the greatest good. We have no man in the Commonwealth so skilled in State craft, and no man more able to be at the helm. The people of Maryland should be proud to avail themselves of his ability as long as they have the opportunity. His fame is national as well as local and a fifth term argument should never be used as a lever for re election rather than the old, worn out plea of succession in office to defeat. Nominate and elect him by all means.

FOR United States Senator, we endorse George L. Radcliffe as a man in every way a credit to his State. He is the choice of the Party and we should stand by him, every thing else being equal.

FOR Comptroller, Wm. S. Gordy, has handled the State affairs in fine manner, as has Mr. Young.

STATE'S Attorney O'Conor has a great record as a lawyer and should receive a tremendous vote. The State is fortunate in being able to get the services of such an able jurist.

T. ALAN Goldsborough for Conman has proven his eminent fitness for the position of Congressman and we predict the largest majority ever obtained by him.

THE candidate for Chief and Associate Judges—Wm. Mason Shehan and J. Owen Knotts has no opposition, but they will appreciate the votes of the people and we ask your endorsement of their candidacies. Both will worthily maintain the high reputation of their predecessors and will handle the duties of the office with signal agility.

THERE is a candidate on the county ticket who has no opposition—Stephen R. Collins, Esq., for State's Attorney. He deserves a re-election. He has made a fine official. Give him your vote.

TRE balance of the Democratic county ticket is equally meritorious and are entitled to the votes of every Democrat at least. The NEWS will present these next week.

Clarence H. B. Long and family, of Cliffs, visited Mr. and Mrs. C M. Melvin, Jr., last Sunday.

Purely Personal

Lull.

At this stage of the political game there seems to be the quiet before the storm, though tonight's mass meeting in Chestertown might stir up a little breeze. The Republican organ fired a meagre blast on Wednesday in favor of their candidate for Congress, aged fifty-three years, raised on a farm, educated in one-room schools and now getting publicity because he is opposing T. Alan Goldsborough for the House of Representatives. That one-room school education angle had me guessing for a long while, but I suppose its to show the man's perserverance, I can think of nothing else save the fact that he must be an optimist to dare risk a candidacy against the veteran T. Alan.

—o—

A Better Beat.

'Round about town we've heard a lot of talk regarding the poor system of night patrolling which goes on in Chestertown, and it put us to wondering whether there is a specified route laid out for our nocturnal policeman. There seems to be dissatisfaction with the manner in which Cannon street is patroled in the wee small hours. It would bear looking into, according to the criticism which is going the rounds.

There is also much chatter about the kind and sort of deeds which should be stopped, and those which should be overlooked to allow more time to check up on the things really needing attention. Some say that if the concentration on roller-skating was let up more time could be given to the checking of rowdyism which is reaching a new high hereabouts.

—o—

Our Thoughts Are With Him.

When Howard Turner was struck down with paralysis last Sunday Betterton should have realized, if it didn't, that its number one citizen, its greatest friend, was ailing. It would be hard to estimate just what Howard Turner's influence, energy and far-sightedness have meant to the upper bayside resort.

We were closely associated with him in the past and hope, not vainly, that next year will find him once again in harness. If ever a man could look upon a community and say with truth and conviction, "I builded this place." it is Howard Turner; for Betterton, whether the other citizens of that town like it or not, is more a creation of Howard Turner's than the work of the folk who settled there and the generations which have lived and died in its homes.

A speedy recovery is our wish and hope for him; a realization of his worth to the community is our sincere desire for the residents of Betterton.

—o—

Merely Trifles.

All the speakers scheduled for the political gathering tonight—Ritchie, Radcliffe, Goldsborough, Gordy and O'Conor—will dine with the common herd at the Emmanuel Church supper beforehand...Doc Whaland has painted his car a vivid blue... There's a football pool at Herb's ...Doc. Jones says mention the fact that townspeople are welcome on the cruise to the Hopkins game next Sat'dy...George Ekaitis might pull some big league football stuff this afternoon, keeping Young on the bench and under cover for the Hopkins tilt...W. C. Fields is Joe Wheatley's greatest funny - bone tickler..."Mixed Pickles" was a typical Wheeler production, hence the natives were not disappointed ... 'Tis rumored that Fox will move his five-cent-and-dollar emporium to the People's Bank site on High Street; and that he will take in the adjoining store to give him ample space...Steve Collins of all the blades, doesn't like New York at night...Radcliffe had better be prepared to state his views on the soldiers' bonus, for there's a move afoot to confront him with the question at tonight's meeting...The sign over the door in Barnett's tonsorial parlor spells "Happiness" with one "P"...We'll miss Capt. Henry Thompson...The local Lutheran Church liiks smilingly at the Methodists, who are celebrating their 150th anniversary, and will observe their 400th year shortly... Tom Healey's court is nearing completion...And the flag placed on Water street is piled up in the gutters.

REPUBLICANS VS. DEMOCRATS

Harry Nice, Esq., wants you Democrats to thoroughly understand that a victory for him is a victory for the Republican party. He appeals to Democrats to vote for him so that he can get rid of a "Ritchie Machine" and build up a Nice Republican Machine. He does not deceive Democrats by making them think he will give them an office—nothing like that. In emphatic language he lets it be known that HIS victory will be a Republican victory, but he says very candidly that they can have no Republican victory unless Democrats help to bring it about. Mr. Nice must be afflicted with a severe brain-storm, to believe the Democrats of the State of Maryland are such nit wits that they cannot tell a Republican trick when they see one.

There are some, who for reasons of their own preferred another DEMOCRAT to Governor Ritchie, but we cannot believe there are many who prefer a Republican to a Democrat. They remember that it is not a matter of a few days that we would have to tolerate the disease, but it would run true to form for four years.—Dem. Messenger.
