Dear Jetty

I received yours and according to your desire, searched every pocket for this same ticket, but to no effect, I remember perfectly giving it to you the day you took Nelly to Belfast, it was in the garden when I gave it to you, it was folded up in a shawl, and at the same time I gave you an old ticket to have examined for one which proved a blank if ever it turns up its well, if not it does not signify, I will write all my kind love - you in one now for which pastor I inclose you half a guinea, be sure to buy a great big dress and you will oblige your truly affectionate Cousin

Clog 5 Feb (1857) Anna Bennie

Miss Jetty Bennie

Belfast