Dear Sir

York 14 June 1846

The present is chiefly to inform you that I have been trying to forward some decent Irishmen to you ever since I got home – the Wages here I believe on pay day is not better than with you, it is only nominally better, there are two young men here who have been working on the road for some Time, they are willing to engage the breaking of a Mile, they seem too knowing to work by the day

York 14 June 1846
Andrew Thomson

A. Binnie Esqre
Tay Town