Dear Sir

Your much esteemed favor came safe to Hand with Notes for Seventy Dollars out of which I shall pay Robinson and Schrives Forty Dollars - this Evening I expect to meet both at a Ball which is to be at Mr Kings. and shall speak to them in respect to the Clover Seed —

I was very apprehensive on account of the great Frost that came on the Night after the Colonel left this - the Old Indian, now thanks God the danger is over - you will please inform the People when you see them I will always give me pleasure to supply them whenever they send for Beer - and that they will have the goodness to send Empty Barrels — The Ladies are all preparing for the Ball - I remain in haste Your ever Sincere friend
