I would presume as two of your Daughters are so young that Captain Hobson who commands her would not charge full passage money. By the time you are in town I trust she will have arrived when final arrangements can be made. In the mean time I remain

Your Ob. Sr.
John A. Dwinn