DEMOCRATS SWEEP COUNTY

Nice Carries Shore But Democracy Wins

STATE-WIDE VOTE

Gov. Nice won in the State by 5,812, while the other State candidates won by tremendous majorities. Ritchie lost every county except Prince George's, Montgomery, Baltimore, and Queen Anne's, and yet the Democratic local ticket in most counties won out.

Latest returns from these counties indicated that Nice would carry the shore by about 7000 majority. It was expected he would carry it by twice that number. The unofficial returns indicated Mr. Nice had carried all Eastern Shore counties with the exception of Queen Anne's at these figures:

Cecil	700
Kent	340
Caroline	457
Talbot	652
Dorchester	1460
Wicomico	1947
Worcester	573
Somerset	2100

In practically all of these counties, however, substantial majorities were rolled up for the other Democratic State candidates and in most instances it appears the local Democratic tickets were elected with the exception of Cecil, Caroline and Somerset counties.

In Queen Anne's county the entire ticket including Treasurer Keith of the New Deal Democratic Organization with a single exception was elected. Dr. Norman S. Dudley, Roe organization candidate, was re-elected Register of Wills without opposition.

G. O. P. "SHUT OUT" OF HOUSE

The Republicans apparently are shut out of seats in the lower house of the Maryland Legislature in the nine counties entirely. However they elected three senators, W. F. Davis in Caroline, Harry T. Phoebus in Somerset and O. S. Lloyd in Wicomico, who won by 15 votes. Democrats will control Senate and House and Board of Public Works.

Both Amendments Defeated In Kent

Almost forgotten in the dramatic results of the election of last Tuesday, and practically ignored by the voters on that day, were the two amendments which occupied a place on the local ticket. One called for a vote regarding the pay raise of Maryland's members of the General Assembly, and the other had to do with Baltimore City's power to borrow money to meet deficiencies in the City Treasury.

Kent County voted 377 For and 573 Against the Amendment affecting Baltimore City; and voted 371 For. and 904 Against the Amendment calling for a raise in the salary of Senators and Delegates.

Judges All Democrats In This And Other Circuits

Despite the "cut" Governor Ritchie received at the hands of the Eastern Shore Democrats, the party in the nine county arear, generally speaking, was victorious at the polls Tuesday, winning five judgeships, a seat in Congress, every seat in the House of Delegates and six of the nine seats in the State Senate.

Benjamin A. Johnson, Democrat, was elected chief judge over James J. McAllister, Republican, of Dorchester county, by a majority of approximately 7,400. James M. Crockett, Democrat, of Pocomoke City, was elected to one of the associate seats on the First Judicial Circuit bench by a majority of 2,000 and T. Sangston Insley, Democrat, of Cambridge, won the other seat on the same bench by 570, over Former Congressman William N. Andrews of Cambridge, and Judge Robert F. Duer, of Princess Anne, the incumbent. This puts three Democrats on the bench in the lower Shore circuit court.

W. Mason Sheehan, of Talbot County, Democrat, and Judge Owen Knotts, of Denton, were unopposed in the Second Judicial Circuit Court for chief judgship to succeed Chief Judge William H. Adkins, who is to retire.

Survey For Tree Planting

District Forester Fritz, of Salisbury, was in Chestertown recently to confer with city authorities and Ernest H. Strong, of the Chester River Country Club, relative to a tree-planting campaign which will shortly be started by the city authorities and civic bodies of the community.

Right after the election we will have the Armistice Day holiday; next to follow will be Thanksgiving Day; then Christmas Day preparations will begin, and then New Year's Day will come along and usher in 1935.

Gunners Prepared For Large Season Here

The open season for shooting wild fowl in Kent county began Thursday and will continue three days each week under Federal regulations until January 15. J. Thomas Dixon, Jr., deputy clerk of the circuit court reported Monday 460 county licenses had been issued, 73 State licenses, and 23 non-resident licenses. Many more applications will be received. Besides these licenses there is also a short term non-resident license for five days.

The Federal government has placed a number of restrictions this year. Owners of ducking shores will not be permitted to bait without special permission and each gunner must have in his possession a ducking stamp which must be purchased from the postoffice in the community where the gunner resides, the proceeds from which will be used in the propagation of wild fowl.

Reports from the Susquehanna flats, the Sassafras and Chester rivers, are that while there is a good supply of what is known as ordinary ducks now feeding, redheads and canvasbacks have not yet made their appearance.

Full details of the game season is noted in another column of the NEWS.

See O'Conor In Next Race For Governor

Herbert R. O'Conor, youthful veteran of three terms as State's attorney of Baltimore, was considered in party circles as having emerged from the election as the Democrat with perhaps the strongest following in the State and as an outstanding candidate for governor four years hence.

Even Mr. O'Conor's political foes were unable to laugh off his more than 102,000 State-wide majority, which came on top of approximately 100,000 by which he carried the city along in his fight for a third term as State's attorney four years ago.

Queen Anne's Court In Session

The November term of the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's county convened Monday in Centreville Court House, with one of the heaviest dockets in recent years to be disposed of. Judges Thos. J. Keating and J. Owen Knotts were on the bench, and the charge to the grand jury was delivered by Judge Keating.

Charles M. West was named foreman of the grand jury.

Big Majorities Piled Up For All Democrats With Exception Of Gov. Ritchie And Hadaway

Voters Turn Our In Large Numbers; Officials Have A Long Struggle With Ballot Count

Senator Arthur H. Brice

Below will be found the official figures of the election in Kent county Tuesday. They are interesting and impressive. It is to be regretted that the county lost Ritchie by 340 and Sheriff Hadaway by 25. They are both able officials. The balance of the ticket went through in regular Democratic style.

Robert A. Shallcross for Clerk received the highest vote of 3,448, Congressman Goldsborough getting 3298.

Arthur H. Brice, Democratic candidate for the State Senate, won by 418 votes over Herbert A. Urie, his Republican rival. It is interesting to note the fine vote given Senator Brice in his Betterton home district and in Kennedyville as well as in other districts except Rock Hall.

Dr. Frank W. Smith, Republican, who was seeking re-election as Register of Wills, was defeated by his Democratic opponent, T. Ringgold Jones, by 243 votes in the closest contest of the day with the exception of that which returned Bennett a victory over J. Thos. Hadaway. Mr. Jones' home district stood by him finely while Millington, Galena and other sections added to his victory.

While Rock Hall cut Ritchie terribly, Chestertown gave him 264 majority.

The race beteen Bennett and Hadaway for the sheriff's post was the center of attention. Millington gave the Republican candidate an 11 vote advantage while Hadaway carried Galena by 52 while the second district, both polling places of which are in Kennedyville, gave Hadaway a 73 advantage. Hadaway had a vote of 9 advantage at Worton while Betterton returned Bennett a majority of 33. The three Chestertown precincts gave Bennett a 58 majority and the Fifth district, the Rock Hall area, favored Hadaway by 23 votes. Fairlee came through for Bennett by 11 votes and Quaker Neck gave the G. O. P. candidate a majority of 50.

Strangely enough it was by almost the exact margin by which he was defeated Tuesday that Hadaway was elected sheriff in 1915 over Owen C. Smith, the count at that time giving the Democratic candidate a majority of 23. He was the only Democrat elected that year and this year he is the only Democrat on local ticket defeated.

Messrs. Hubbard and Strong piled up majorities of about 800 each proving their popularity.

The County Commissioners, Messrs. Leary, Loller and Wilson, polled splendid votes and deserved them all, as did Judges of Orphans' Court and State's Attorney.

Returns were slow coming in. The Fourth District, Precinct N, was the first to finish its count and results were available around 2 a. m. The last to be heard from was that at Galena, in the First district, which did not report until nearly noon.

Hold Meeting Local Hospital Directors

A meeting of the Kent and Upper Queen Anne's General Hospital directors was held Monday night, Nov. 5th, at the hospital. The vacancies caused by the death of Messrs. W. Irving Walker and Fred S. Russell were filled by naming Laurence G. Brown and R. Oliver Wright, respectively. The number of directors to be increased to twenty, was held over for the next regular meeting in December. A Ladies' Auxiliary is being formed.

B. Trew Durding reported very favorably prospects of securing the services of two graduate nurses, a dietecian and a janitor, to be on duty by November 15th, also a prospect for the grading of roadway and grading and improving the hospital grounds, all of which to be taken care of thru CWA.

Harry F. Walls, one of Church Hill's reliable and hustling merchants, advertises elsewhere in this issue his Heatrola. It is worth investigating when it comes to heating.

News--In--Brief

J. Edward Blackway, of Chestertown, who was recently denied a permit to sell beer in the poolroom property on Cannon street because of protests filed with the State Liquor License Board, has been granted a sale permit to sell the beverage in a place on Princess street in the rear of the property of his brother, Herman Blackway. He began business Saturday night.

Capt. Dick Pebworth, of the steamer Schoodic, and his wife were knocked down Sunday about 5.30 in the evening by a truck near the shore west of Rock Hall. Both were badly bruised. They were taken to the home of Charles Russell, Mrs. Pebworth's father, where they were treated. Thursday the captain was carried to Baltimore hospital.

The second meeting of the year for the Parent-Teacher Association of the Chestertown Elementary School has been set for 8 p. m. on Monday, Nov. 12. Miss Esta V. Harrison, school supervisor, will be the speaker.

The parents of all elementary school children are urged to attend. The meeting will be held in the school building.

The second meeting of the Chestertown P. T. A. will be held at the high school Monday night. Dr. J. D. Blackwell, director of Vocational Education of the State Department of Education. will be the speaker. Dr. Blackwell will explain how the Federal Government intends to promote adult education in Kent county. The speaker is widely known throughout the State for his accomplishments in Vocational Education. The public is cordially invited and a large representation is expected.
